PREFACE

In June, 1984, the Supreme Court of Texas and the Texas Judicial Council directed that all future Annual Reports on the court activity of the Texas Judicial System be published on the state fiscal year basis, rather than on a calendar year basis, as had been the prior custom. The state fiscal year period is from September 1st of one year to August 31st of the next year.

Responding to this directive, the Fifty-Sixth Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System contains the activities of the courts and judicial agencies of the State of Texas from September 1, 1983, to August 31, 1984.

As the prior Annual Report included court activity for all of calendar year 1983, there is a necessary overlap of the court activity for four months (September through December, 1983) contained in this report.

Because of this overlap of court activity for the last four months of 1983, some caution is necessary in the use of the activity data in this report when making comparisons to court activity of past years.

As in past years, this report is intended to inform the general public, as well as the legislative and executive branches of state government, of the accomplishments of the judicial branch during the reported period. It is prepared by the staff of the state Office of Court Administration and submitted under the auspices of the Texas Judicial Council, pursuant to the statutory duty of the Council to make a:

> "...continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and pracxtice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement."
> (Article 2328a, Section 1, V.T.C.S.)

This report includes information of the basic structure and organization of the Texas Judiciary; detailed reports, summaries and analyses of the activities of the various levels of courts comprising the judicial system; reports on the activities of judicial agencies; and listings of judges and clerks.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We express our appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted monthly reports on court operations. Their cooperation and assistance was particularly welcome during this transitional period while we converted to a fiscal year report. Without their efforts, publication of this report would not be possible and the citizens of the State would have no information on the activities of the Judiciary.

Special acknowledgement is due to Supreme Court Chief Justice John L. Hill, Jr., whose State of the Judiciary Message to the 69th Legislature is published herein; to former Chief Justice Jack Pope, who recently retired after almost 39 years as a judge; and to District Judge Ben Z. Grant, President of the Texas Judicial Council, for their continuing aid and support. Members of the Judicial Council, who serve without remuneration, are due particular appreciation for their personal time and dedication to the administration of justice in Texas.

TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 69TH LEGISLATURE, AND THE CITIZENS OF TEXAS:

I am pleased to submit to you the 56th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. This report summarizes the activities and operations of more than 2,500 courts in the State of Texas for the year ending August 31, 1984.

For the first time in the more than fifty years of reporting, this report is submitted on a State fiscal year basis. Responding to numerous requests, the Supreme Court and the Texas Judicial Council in June, 1984, determined that all future reports should cover the same period as that of the State fiscal year.

This change will provide the members of the Legislature with more current and detailed information during the regular sessions of the Legislature than has been possible in the past. This will enable the Legislature to be better informed on the accomplishments and the needs of the judiciary during their deliberations and will provide a better understanding between the two branches of government.

It is my sincere hope that the information contained in this report will be helpful in channeling the efforts of the State to meet the needs of society by providing for a more just, effective and efficient system of justice for all of our citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

Ben Z. Grant
President

THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

MESSAGE

CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN L. HILL, JR.
Supreme Court of Texas

DELIVERED TO THE
SIXTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
January 22, 1985

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 5429h, V.T.C.S.

THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY MESSAGE

By Chief Justice John L. Hill, Jr.

January 22, 1985

GOVERNOR HOBBY, SPEAKER LEWIS, SENATORS, REPRESENTATIVES, STATE OFFICERS, JUSTICES AND JUDGES, AND FELLOW TEXANS:

In 1977, the Texas Legislature adopted Article 5429h which directs the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to present a State of the Judiciary Message to each Regular Session of the Legislature. Your request that brings us here for the fourth time to report on the condition of Texas's Judicial Branch of Government is viewed by us as a high honor and rich privilege. On behalf of the almost 3,000 judges of the third constitutional Branch of Government, I express my appreciation to Lieutenant Governor Hobby and the Texas Senate and to Speaker Lewis and the House of Representatives for according us this early opportunity to review with you matters of concern to all Texans.

I am pleased to report to you that through the cooperation of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches of our Texas Government, significant strides have been taken these past two years toward improving the competency of our lawyers and judges and the quality of justice made available to the citizens of our state. Let me quickly capsule these:

PROGRESS SINCE LAST MESSAGE

(1) Pursuant to authority granted by the 68th Legislature, the Supreme Court has entered orders requiring annual mandatory continuing legal education for Texas judges, and has activated a Supreme Court Education Committee to make recommendations to the Court on the programs and the approval of courses. Regional continuing education meetings for most judges are being held, and Justice Raul Gonzalez has been designated as Supreme Court liaison for these important efforts. With your assistance in providing adequate funding, we will continue to upgrade the competency of our state judges.

(2) The Texas Commission on Judicial Conduct which has important responsibilities for enforcing our Texas Code of Judicial Conduct has begun operating under the new constitutional amendment adopted by the voters in November 1984, which expands and improves the mechanisms for maintaining high standards of conduct by our judges. We intend to see that the letter and the spirit of this new amendment is implemented. The ethics of our judges must be beyond reproach.

(3) The widely acclaimed continuing legal education programs conducted by the State Bar for Texas lawyers have been expanded and improved. Competent lawyers are indispensable to quality justice and with the rapid changes occuring in our system of laws, we all must study harder to keep abreast.

(4) The Supreme Court, upon the recommendation of a referendum of members of the State Bar, recently promulgated new and more stringent rules and procedures for enforcing our Code of Professional Responsibility applicable to all Texas lawyers. This was a significant step in the recognition by the lawyers of Texas that we must deal fairly, effectively and promptly with complaints of lawyer misconduct. We intend to see that the letter and the spirit of these new rules and procedures are implemented. The ethics of our lawyers must be beyond reproach.

(5) The Supreme Court last year promulgated a far-reaching reorganization of the Rules of Civil Procedure pertaining to pre-trial discovery in civil cases. We are now monitoring that part of this reorganization which imposed sanctions for abuse of discovery to determine how well these provisions are working, and we will further strengthen the Rules in this area if necessary. We are serious about cutting out dilatory trial tactics that unnecessarily slow down the process and help clog our court dockets.

(6) The procedures under which our civil courts try cases have been greatly modernized by adoption of the new Civil Rules of Evidence. We are monitoring the vitality of these rules in actual practice and will further strengthen the rules if necessary. Through adherence to and refinement of these new rules, we are determined to simplify and bring more common sense into the trial of cases.

(7) Unnecessary and resource-wasting interlocutory appeals in venue matters have been abolished by your legislative enactment of the new venue statute in 1983, and we thank you for providing this progressive improvement. This legislative initiative is being widely hailed as a distinct improvement in the administration of justice in Texas.

(8) A special advisory committee has developed a proposal to harmonize the civil and criminal rules of appellate procedure as much as possible. Many of the procedural differences between civil and criminal law practice are confusing to lawyers, judges and especially to our citizens, and simply serve no reasonable purpose. The Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals are presently examining the work of this advisory committee and will seek your assistance in coordinating and harmonizing needed changes in statutory law with anticipated changes in court rules and to consider granting the Courts of Appeals rule-making authority in this area. This will be still another example of the legislative and judicial branches of Texas government working cooperatively to improve the administration of justice for all our citizens.

(9) For the first time in Texas, time standards for the disposition of civil cases in the trial courts have been adopted, by court rule, similar to those time standards adopted by the Legislature for criminal cases in the Speedy Trial Act. Because you granted us rule-making authority in the civil field, we were able to move and begin to address the serious problems of trial delay. Additional and more detailed rules to put teeth in these time standards are now being promulgated by the Supreme Court and will soon be issued. We are determined to prevent cases from falling into judicial limbo after they are filed. We are totally committed to eliminating unnecesary trial delay.

(10) The State Bar and the Supreme Court have recently adopted an innovative program to fund the delivery of legal services in civil matters to low income Texans through the voluntary utilization of interest earned from lawyers' idle trust funds. We need to build on and expand these important initiatives because the need is substantial.

(11) Thanks to the funding help provided by the last two sessions of the Legislature, more of the appellate courts in Texas are keeping their dockets current than at any time in the past decade. The Court of Criminal Appeals has virtually completed disposition of the appeals left pending when criminal jurisdiction was granted by the Legislature to the Courts of Appeals, and is timely handling the new matters filed in that Court. The 14 Courts of Appeals reduced both their civil and criminal pending caseloads during the state fiscal year 1984. It was the first time since 1973 that the Courts ended a year with fewer civil cases on their dockets than when the year began, and the second consecutive year that they reduced their criminal caseload. I want to acknowledge the fine work of the judges of the Courts of Appeals. Many of the criminal appeals in this state are being eliminated at that level, and their opinions are adding considerably to the jurisprudence of our state.

The Legislature is to be commended for the support and attention you have given to the Judiciary in the previous sessions and we appreciate it. We know the Legislature fully realizes the importance of the judicial branch of government as a third branch, and you have shown by your support that you are willing to work for the interests of the judicial branch.

Speaking personally, I want you to know I like my job. Nobody drafted me. I am where I want to be, and you have my assurance that I will work hard every day to provide leadership to see that our own administrative responsibilities and job obligations are carried out to the fullest -- particularly as they relate to reducing unnecessary court delay in our trial courts.

PROBLEMS IN OUR TRIAL COURTS

Now, let me visit with you about our prime trouble area -- our trial courts. I want to really underscore and emphasize today that our trial courts are ailing and need your help. The trial courts are where the need for your legislative help and our administrative help is now critical. Many of our trial courts are behind in disposing of cases. In some areas, the situation is critical. Believe me -- and I won't bore you with statistics -- the situation is bad and worsening, especially in some of our urban areas.

Just as we asked two years ago for your help for the appellate courts and you responded, we now need your help for the trial courts to deal with the problems of trial court delay. Civil litigation takes too long and costs too much. We must declare war on unnecessary court delay at the trial level. Justice delayed is justice denied. I respectfully ask your help.

In the areas where the Supreme Court has administrative authority and responsibility to deal with trial delay, we are prepared to supplement the present rules, to improve the setting and movement of cases, and to put teeth in the time standards for disposition of cases. We are going to call upon the trial courts as never before to eliminate trial delay. We are getting away from the system of the past. We are prepared to work with the bar and others as never before in cleaning up our trial dockets. We are already at work, but we need your help if we are to be effective in reducing the time cases remain on the trial dockets. If you give us your support, I promise you it will be a new day for the administration of justice in Texas.

We respectfully request that you show confidence in our trial courts by adopting the recommendations of the Judicial Budget Board which put prime focus on the needs of our trial courts. This Board, under the able leadership of Justice Maurice Campbell, deserves your respect and I know you will give serious consideration to its recommendations. As Chief Justice, I have carefully reviewed the recommendations of the Judicial Budget Board and wholeheartedly concur in them, as follows:

(1) Give local trial judges a qualified individual employee to help them with their administrative work and caseflow management so that the judges can devote maximum attention to the trial of cases and increase productivity. The Judicial Budget Board recommends that you provide each district court with a support fund of $27,500, similar to the local support fund you now provide to the district attorneys of the State. This would be a much wiser use of our strained financial resources than continuing the prior practice of adding new courts to meet increased dockets, and assigning retired judges on a continuing basis to try cases. I agree with Governor White that our need is not for new courts, but rather to provide the courts we have with the tools and resources they need to more effectively do their job.

(2) To help keep the good judges we presently have and to continue to attract top men and women to the trial bench, the Judicial Budget Board recommends that the salaries of district judges be adjusted to 85 percent of the salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court. This is similar to your prior action of adjusting the salary for the judges on the Courts of Appeals to 90 percent of the Supreme Court.

A recent Survey of Judicial Salaries by the National Center for State Courts indicates that Texas ranks 8th among the states in intermediate appellate judge salaries but 24th for district judge salaries. This disparity is not justified and is false economy.

The Legislative Select Committee on the Judiciary has also recommended this 85 percent salary level for district judges and, before you tune me out as being out of step with your budget crunch, let me tell you that we are endorsing a reasonable filing fee increase plan for funding these appropriation requests.

(3) Delay in preparing court records and testimony is a prime culprit in perpetuating clogged dockets. After an extensive survey, the Judicial Budget Board determined that computer-aided transcription systems are the single most important element in reducing this delay. That is why the Board has recommended that the Legislature establish a state-administered revolving fund to provide computer-aided transcription systems and other technology to those courts which have the greatest delay. This also accords with the Select Committee's views. We need to take this beginning step toward modernizing our trial courts' case management capabilities and bringing them state-of-the-art technology. This will be a good investment -- truly money well spent.

Provide these three things for our trial courts -- administrative and caseflow management support, fairer compensation for our trial judges, and computer-aided transcription systems and technology -- and we'll bring you a record of progress in those courts two years from now -- just as we have brought you a record of progress in the appellate field. This will be a wise investment and will benefit all of our citizens.

Now as to the details of the funding of these three programs. Senator Caperton has prepared a bill which will provide the funds necessary for them. The bill raises the money by means of a "user tax," through increased filing fees, so that no additional funds would be necessary from the general treasury of the State. By raising the filing fees in civil cases filed in our district courts, the users of the system will pay for these badly needed improvements. At the same time this bill provides that people who are too poor to pay this "user tax" will be exempt from paying and would be assured of continued access to our courts. Thus we propose to provide an improved judicial system and streamlined court administration without asking you to dip into the greatly-strained general revenue fund. In addition, we are hopeful that the user fees can be increased to provide additional general revenue funds. Our basic civil filing fees are among the lowest in the nation -- to be exact, we are 41st among the states.

On the administrative front, we are challenging our trial courts to take early control of each filed case and maintain steady control until the case is out of the system. The trial court must be aware of incoming cases and accept responsibility for them at the time they are filed. The day of judicial passivity toward the movement of cases is gone. We will no longer depend solely on lawyer diligence for the processing of cases. We cannot allow a case, once filed, to simply fall into judicial limbo. The citizen involved in the litigation has a right to expect the court to accept accountability for the progress of each case in the system.

Nor is it enough to begin control if control is thereafter lost. Responsibility for the movement of each case must always remain in the court. Each trial court must have the necessary administrative assistance and technological support to ensure better productivity in disposing of cases. We are confident you will respond to your legislative responsibilities as we intend to respond to our administrative responsibilities.

The Select Committee on the Judiciary also has recommended the immediate infusion of administration and management and the additional funding necessary at the trial level in essentially the same manner that we are recommending today. Senator Ray Farabee and Representative Bush and their excellent committee and staff are to be highly commended for their dedicated efforts to improve the administration of justice in this State, and I know you will accord their committee recommendations the serious consideration they deserve.

CRIMINAL DOCKETS

Now, let me turn our attention to the criminal side of our dockets, where my distinguished colleague, the Honorable John F. Onion, Jr., sits as Presiding Judge.

There is a great divergence between civil and criminal rules of evidence in Texas today. A special advisory committee of the Select Committee has developed a code of rules of evidence for criminal trial proceedings, and the Select Committee has recommended that the Court of Criminal Appeals be given the authority to promulgate this code. Its provisions would closely harmonize with those adopted by the Supreme Court for civil cases, and Judge Onion and I hope that you will look favorably on this proposal.

Our appellate criminal courts need the power to amend or review punishment assessed in certain criminal cases. Just recently, the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a conviction because the jury assessed a term of years and a fine when the statute allowed only the assessment of a term of years. The Court of Criminal Appeals held that the entire case had to be retried because the jury assessed an unauthorized punishment, and the courts had no power to alter the fine assessed by the jury. Judge Onion and I believe the appellate courts should be given such authority in appropriate cases to prevent unnecessary reversals.

Also, we believe that the Code of Criminal Procedure needs to be changed to prevent the jury from impeaching its own verdict. Each year cases are reversed because the jury is allowed to admit after conviction that it discussed parole in the jury room and it influenced its verdict. Texas stands alone among all states and the Federal system in allowing a jury to admit its discussions on parole and impeach its verdict.

Finally, we believe and so recommend that we implement a method to challenge indictments similar to the bill of particulars in federal court cases or other appropriate means which would prevent problems on appeal concerning the sufficiency of the indictment. In addition to the indictment or information the defendant should have the right to demand of the prosecutor a bill of particulars setting out in plain language the charges against him and the Penal Code sections he is accused of violating. It should, however, be provided that this closes off any later challenge of that indictment or information based upon particularity as to charges.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISPUTE MECHANISMS

Now let me talk with you a few moments about what we can do, working together, to furnish our citizens an opportunity to utilize supplemental mechanisms for the resolution of some of their disputes. The use of supplemental dispute resolution procedures is an idea whose time has come. It is normally to the courts that spouses and children, insurers and injured persons, creditors and debtors, heirs and trustees, the rich and the poor, consumers and businessmen, corporations and partnerships, all turn for the resolution of their problems and disputes. Millions of Texans pass through our courtrooms every year. This extensive use of our courts denotes confidence in a judicial system that, with all its problems, is still the best ever devised.

Most of these cases were heard and decided. The vast current of cases flowing through the legal stream involves ordinary people who just want an impartial, independent, third party to make an honest decision and resolve their problems. Nothing affects our citizens more. We all have an important stake in preserving and enhancing this system of justice, but we need to supplement it.

The Texas Judicial Council has proposed that legislation be passed to implement the use of mandatory but non-binding arbitration in many types of civil cases, other than in family law matters. This legislation would establish certain parameters for the types of civil cases which could benefit the most from arbitration, including a maximum amount in controversy and the subject matter of the disputes subject to arbitration. While either party could appeal from any award, sanctions would be imposed on a party appealing an arbitration award who is unsuccessful on appeal, such as the payment of the attorney fees of the other party.

The Legislative Select Committee on the Judiciary has proposed that judges be allowed to assign civil suits to non-binding arbitration upon the motion of any party if the judge determines that the amount in controversy, exclusive of attorney fees and court costs, is below $10,000. I hope you will be supportive of these arbitration proposals.

Also, I hope that you will support another supplemental program -- the authorization of mediation programs to aid in the resolution of certain types of controversies which arise in family law matters, such as child custody and support disputes. Other states have experienced good success with such initiatives.

Since the enactment of enabling legislation during the last legislative session, alternative dispute resolution centers have been established in Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Austin, and additional centers are now being planned in other cities. I commit myself to work with the Legislature, the Bar, and the Judiciary in support of the expansion of these neighborhood dispute centers throughout Texas because they are proving themselves as viable supplements to full court resolution of disputes. They can help relieve the pressures on our trial courts without lessening the quality of legal relief available to our citizens.

All of these new supplemental dispute programs -- and more -- should be utilized. We can monitor them and suggest changes from time to time in authorizing legislation to increase their effectiveness. Our times demand innovative and creative approaches to strengthen our present justice system by providing various types of supplemental procedures to make our system more effective, especially among individuals having ongoing relationships.

JURISDICTIONAL PROBLEMS

We are all concerned about the lack of cohesiveness in our judicial system. As you know, our district trial courts have jurisdiction that overlaps that of County Courts and County Courts at Law. The $500.00 starting point for district court jurisdiction was fixed by Constitutional provision in 1876, the year that President Grant was in office. Jurisdictions of county courts at law vary from a maximum of $5,000 to $50,000. The last session of the Legislature extended the jurisdiction of the El Paso county courts at law to an unlimited amount. Within the same counties, courts of the same level often have varying jurisdictional powers in both subject matter and monetary amounts. We believe that the minimum civil jurisdiction of district courts should be raised to a more realistic level, and that the maximum civil jurisdiction of county courts at law should be made uniform statewide -- all to bring about more cohesiveness in the system.

RESTRUCTURING THE JUDICIAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM

Do not believe that because I have waited until this late point in this report to mention it means that I attach a lack of importance to a solution to the funding problem of the Judicial Retirement System. I assure you that finding such a solution is of the utmost importance and should be addressed by this Legislature.

The Judicial Retirement System should be made actuarially sound and self-financing for all persons becoming judges in the future. However, to keep faith with prior commitments the present system should be retained for all judges, active and retired, who have vested their benefits in the present system.

The state Pension Review Board prepared legislation to accomplish this during the last legislative session. This bill was reported out of the House Retirement and Aging Committee, but was not placed on the House calendar. Similar legislation has been introduced this session as Senate Bill 105, by Senators Farabee and Caperton. I know it will have your support.

Recently, the Select Committee on the Judiciary has recommended the same type of two-tiered system. The first tier would retain the current retirement plan for all judges in the system on the effective date of the legislation, while the second tier would apply to judges coming into the system after that date and would be a funded system. Adoption of this proposal would result in substantial savings to the state in future years, and we will greatly appreciate your attention to this most vital concern.

SELECTION OF JUDGES

Now, to the tough one.

One matter that is affecting the state of our Texas judiciary that is a big concern to us all is the fact that over the past few years several of our well qualified judges have been turned out of office by the electorate on what appeared to be largely the mechanism of sheer party voting. The possibility of election to judicial office by reasons detached from ability should disturb us all. Were this phenomena to continue from election to election, it would be highly destructive to the morale and stability of our judiciary. It has already taken its toll in this regard, especially in some of our urban areas. Such a situation, focusing as it does more on the fortunes of political parties and national and other state-wide candidates than on individual qualifications of the judicial candidates, makes it even more difficult to entice qualified lawyers to accept judicial appointment. The Select Committee on the Judiciary has recommended three alternative methods to deal with this problem:

(1) The plan providing for appointment followed by retention elections;

(2) Non-partisan elections; and

(3) Ballot changes to prevent straight-party voting in judicial races.

I am confident that you will make legislative changes as in your wisdom will reflect the most appropriate plan to eliminate the problem. Let us know how, in any appropriate way, we can assist you in your legislative efforts to resolve this important issue.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

Another election law issue which I hope you will address is that of campaign financing. A reasonable limitation in contributions from any one source is sound. Excessive campaign contributions from single sources can present the appearance of impropriety, and the Legislature should address this issue to ensure that public confidence is retained in all of our elected officers.

CONCLUSION

Under our Constitution, the Judiciary is a separate branch of government, not just another state agency. We consider this courtesy extended to me today by the Legislative branch an affirmation of the committment we all share to the concept of three separate and co-equal branches of government.

The duty and corresponding responsibility to see that our judicial affairs are properly administered day to day should be our own and separate from the duties and powers of the executive and legislative branches. With your encouragement and understanding, we will do our best to meet these responsibilities. Likewise, I know you will meet your legislative responsibility to provide us with the tools and assistance and support we need to do our job. Only you can do that and we respectfully ask your help.

Thank you for your time, your attention, and your interest. Let me leave you with one theme:

Nothing is more important in a free society than a free and honest and impartial and qualified judicial system. Such a system is indispensable to the maintenance of a free society. Help us and together we will provide Texas with the finest judicial system in America.

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS
Descriptive Outline
September 1, 1984

The appellate courts of Texas include a Supreme Court, a Court of Criminal Appeals, and 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts. Additionally, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by a county judge. To relieve the docket congestion of this single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established county courts at law and probate courts in populous counties.

The Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. These justice courts also serve as small claims courts. The Legislature has established municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

DISTRICT COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 367.

2. JURISDICTION: There are 367 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. The Legislature has created four additional courts, effective 1-1-85. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

District courts are trial courts of general subject-matter jurisdiction. They have original jurisdiction of all felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, all civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $500, and all other cases where jurisdiction of the subject-matter of the case is not vested in some other court. County courts at law and "constitutional" county courts also exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction over civil suits and thus to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Several statutes stipulate various maximum amounts in controversy over which the various county-level courts may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county-level courts begins with suits involving $500 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county-level court. Above such maximum jurisdictional amount of the county-level court, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law cases. In some instances, the courts that hear criminal cases exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also have the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Courts of Appeals, except those capital offense cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

3. SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

a. Number: One judge per court.

b. Selection: Partisan, district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.

c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.

d. Salaries paid by the State:
Effective 9-1-84.....$54,500
Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties. Total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by associate justices of the Courts of Appeals of the supreme judicial district.

e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 254.

2. JURISDICTION:
   a. Legal jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the State, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. (In populous counties, the "county judge" may devote full time to managing county government.)

   The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has concurrent legal authority with justice of the peace courts in civil cases when the contested amount exceeds $200 but is less than $1,000, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually has general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed. Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists.

   Decisions from the municipal and justice of the peace courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Appeals from municipal courts of record are an exception, where the county court reviews only the written record from the trial. Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals.

   b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

Note: The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 133.

2. JURISDICTION:
   a. Legal jurisdiction: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 133 statutory county courts at law in 53 counties, primarily in metrpolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. Nine additional courts will become effective on 1-1-86, and two more on 1-1-88, or earlier if approved by the commissioners courts of the respective counties.

   The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. Some of these courts are intended to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts). The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court extends to greater amounts in controversy than the constitutional county courts.

   b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute. Some include two to five years' experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 940.

2. JURISDICTION: As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided (depending upon the population) into at least one, and not more than eight justice precincts. In each such precinct, one justice of the peace is to be elected, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, two justices of the peace are to be elected from such precinct.

   Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less; concurrent jurisdiction with county courts when the amount is more than $200 but less than $500; and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts when the amount is at least $500 but less than $1,000. By statute, they are granted jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer and forcible detainer actions.

A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court.

3. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: No statutory provision.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 832.

2. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the State. Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 832 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court.

   These courts do not have civil jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violation of city ordinances. Ordinance violations involving fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines up to $1,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits (predominately traffic offenses) when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State.

   Generally, municipal courts are not courts of record, and appeals from them are by trial de novo in the county court, county court at law or district court. The municipal courts of El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Marshall, Midland, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls are courts of record, and appeals from these courts are on the record made therein.

3. SEATS: Determined by the city or town.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city as provided by city charter or ordinance.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Most are appointed for two-year terms and serve at the will of the governing body of the city.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM
Subject-Matter Jurisdiction of the Courts
September 1, 1984

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The amendment established the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, which makes the final determination in criminal matters. There are now 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals which, since September 1, 1981, exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases. Prior to that date, these courts had jurisdiction in intermediate civil appellate cases only.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 367, as of September 1, 1984. (Ten of these courts are designated "Criminal District Courts," but, as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited to criminal cases on the district level.)

The geographical area served by each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and does not necessarily correspond to the area served by any previously-established court. Each court has one judge. The State pays the base salary of each judge and some limited expenses of the judge.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. The county judge also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 59 counties. As of September 1, 1984, there are 11 probate courts and 122 county courts at law in operation. Eleven additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but were not in operation during fiscal year 1984.

The Texas Constitution also provides for not less than one nor more than 16 justices of the peace in each county. Today there are approximately 940 justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these courts have also served as small claims courts.

By statute, the Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city in the State. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts over state law violations, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality. Municipal courts do not have civil jurisdiction.

Trials in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with 8 exceptions) are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties as noted later where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court. When an appeal is by trial de novo, the case is tried again in the higher court, just as if the original trial had not occurred.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual court. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters (such as the Family Code, which requires, for example, that judges who are lawyers hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.)

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Court of Appeals located in Austin. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of Texas. Certain counties supplement this base salary for district and Court of Appeals judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the base salary of the judge. The cities finance the operation of municipal courts.

Senate Bill 179 of the 68th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated less than $57 million for the operations of the Texas judiciary--including the Judicial Retirement System--in fiscal year 1985. This represents 0.37 of one percent of the $15.6 billion total state budget for fiscal year 1985.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: (1) the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; (2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and (3) the 14 Courts of Appeals, which are the intermediate appellate courts for both civil and criminal appeals from the trial-level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the lower courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented at the trial-court level.

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a Chief Justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three-judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two Commissions of Appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

> The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of the Court of Appeals is usually final. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the judicial system and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. The Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of judges in the State.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas judicial system. These duties include: (1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas judicial system (article 1731a); (2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas judicial system (article 2328b); (3) equalizing the dockets between the 14 Courts of Appeals (article 1738); (4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining or removing judges from office (article V, section 1-a, Tex. Const.); (5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State (articles 304, 306, 320a-1); (6) promulgating disciplinary rules for the Texas Prosecutor Council (article 332d); and (7) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Court Reporters Certification Board and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Board (article 2324b).

The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: (1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (article 200a); (2) assign judges between administrative judicial districts (article 200a); (3) assign retired appellate justices to the various Courts of Appeals on a temporary basis (article 1812); and, (4) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (article 5429h).

The Supreme Court is composed of one Chief Justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a state-wide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this Court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this State, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

The Court of Criminal Appeals

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

The constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides: "The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law." The jurisdiction of this Court extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate Courts of Appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. In addition, the Legislature has authorized this Court to promulgate "rules of post trial and appellate procedure" in criminal cases.

The Court of Criminal Appeals, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a Presiding Judge and eight additional judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

The Courts of Appeals

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate Courts of Civil Appeals located at various places throughout the State. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the state into 14 "Supreme Judicial Districts" and has established a Court of Appeals in each district. These courts are located in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Eastland, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston (two courts), San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, and Waco. (See map of districts on opposite page.)

Each court has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in the same Supreme Judicial District. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The Courts of Appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of these courts is usually final.

Each of the Courts of Appeals has at least three judges--a chief justice and two associate justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. Presently, the Dallas Court of Appeals has 13 justices, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine justices, the courts located in Fort Worth and San Antonio each have seven, the courts located in Austin and Corpus Christi each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. Presently there are 80 judges serving on the 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for six-year terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. In all cases, the parties have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve local citizens. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county-level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts at law, and the probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the State, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the State.

District-Level Courts

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to state-wide election) and that court proceedings be conducted at the county seat of each county.

The district courts are the general trial courts for the State, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $500 or more. This jurisdiction is concurrent with the "constitutional" county court in cases involving less than $1,000. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts usually have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $500 but is less than $5,000.

The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by statute or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of September 1, 1984, the Legislature has established 367 separate district-level courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge elected by the voters of the judicial district. In a number of locations, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Specialized Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the constitutional jurisdiction of a district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W.2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). Accord, Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). See also, Ward v. State, 523 S.W.2d 681, 682 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975); Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933); and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, the Supreme Court stated the rule as follows: "If the Legislature did enough to bring into active existence a district court, it was at once clothed with the powers conferred by the Constitution upon such courts, and any attempts in the act to unduly limit those powers must be treated as futile." 85 S.W.2d at 788. In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that, although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County purportedly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently, state statutes similarly purport to limit the jurisdiction of 16 district courts to civil matters only:

17th	Tarrant	arts. 199(17), 199(153)
44th	Dallas.	art. 1926-11

116th	Dallas.	art. 1926-11
134th	Dallas.	art. 1926-11
136th	Jefferson . . .	arts. 199(58), 199(136)
153rd	Tarrant	arts. 199(17), 199(153)
160th	Dallas.	art. 1926-11

Although the Legislature may not divest a regular district court of any of its constitutional jurisdiction, the Legislature may, under its constitutional authority to create "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) establish special courts with limited district-level jurisdiction. See Jordan v. Crudgington, 231 S.W.2d 641 (Tex. 1950) (regarding the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941) (regarding the Criminal District Court of Willacy County).

Several "Criminal District Courts" have been created with limited jurisdictions, but at this time only three courts are limited exclusively to criminal, district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)	2
Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-43)
Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-44)

One court is limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)	3

As will be noted later, most Criminal District Courts cannot be said to have only district-level criminal jurisdiction because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction.

Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases. The statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts, but such provision is probably not mandatory. See Lord, 352 S.W.2d at 722:

144th	Bexar	art.	199(37)	4
175th	Bexar	art.	199(37)
187th	Bexar	art.	199a,§3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are directed by statute to give preference to civil cases and only civil cases are to be filed in those courts:

37th	Bexar	art.	199(37)	5
45th	Bexar	art.	199(37)
57th	Bexar	art.	199(37)
73rd	Bexar	art.	199(37)
131st	Bexar	art.	199(37)
150th	Bexar	arts.	199(37), 199(150)
166th	Bexar	art.	199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Forty-one courts are thus instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

105th	Nueces	art.	199(105)	6
107th	Cameron, Willacy	art.	199(107)

One court is directed by statute to give first preference to family law cases and second preference to criminal cases:

148th	Nueces	art.	199a,§3.001	9

The 65th Legislature (1977) converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these courts are to have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. There are now 32 such courts:

The other statutory provision observed above--that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court--is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. See Lord v. Clayton, 352 S.W.2d at 722.

The statutes provide that in 14 courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th	Harris.	art.	199(11)
55th	Harris.	art.	199(11)
61st	Harris.	art.	199(11)

Finally, for one court, the Legislature has specified that no tax cases shall be filed:

13

As noted above, some 122 statutory county courts at law and 11 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised concurrently by the county court at law and the district court.

Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified family law matters:

Finally, the statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61) — 24

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district court jurisdiction and county court jurisdiction. In nine counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306
Comal (22nd District Court) - Acts 1883, ch. 35, p. 24
Falls (82nd District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 89, p. 243; Acts 1975, ch. 39, p. 84
Jones (259th District Court) - art. 199a, §3.085(b)
Mason (33rd District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 73, p. 54
Robertson (20th District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 96, p. 256
Shackelford (259th District Court) - art. 199a, §3.085(b)

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except for probate matters and the jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases, has been transferred to the district court in six counties:

Baylor (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794. p. 3039
Cass (5th District Court) - Acts 1879, ch. 25, p. 21; Acts 1971, ch. 273, p. 1198; art, 1970-310 note

Eastland (91st District Court) - art. 1970-141a
King (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794, p. 3039
Knox (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794, p. 3039 — 26

In another county, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have been granted concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

Marion (115th, 276th District Courts) - Act 1887, ch. 36, p. 38; arts. 1970-322a; art. 199a, §3.102 — 27

In another county, all civil cases, except those involving probate matters, and all criminal cases appealed from the justice and municipal courts have been transferred to the district court, and the county and district courts have concurrent jurisdiction in cases in which the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art. 1970-314a — 28

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court in six counties:

Glasscock (118th District Court) - art. 1970-320 and Acts 1957, ch. 196, p. 399
Mills (35th District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 97, p. 109; Acts 1907, ch. 101, p. 199
Navarro (13th District Court) - art. 1970-326
Sabine (1st, 273rd District Courts) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S. ch. 7, p. 90
San Augustine (1st, 273rd District Courts) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90
Wichita (89th District Court) - art. 1970-166b — 29

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the Legislature in several instances has given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters.

Thirteen district-level courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

9th (Polk) - art. 199, subd. (9)
2nd 9th (Polk) - art. 199, subd. (2nd 9, § 10b)
207th (Caldwell) - art. 199a, §3.035(b)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County - art. 1926-21 — 30

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County - art. 1926-14	30
Criminal District Court No. 4 of Dallas County - art. 199 (162)
Criminal District Court No. 5 of Dallas County - art. 1926-15
Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-41

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-44
Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-45

In five counties, the district and county courts have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters normally vested solely in the county court:

[3]Hardin (356th District Court) - art. 199a, §3.151	31
Hill (66th District Court) - art. 1970-333
Johnson (18th District Court) - art. 1970-335
VanZandt (294th District Court) - art. 199a, §3.120
Wood (294th District Court) - art. 199a, §3.120

County-Level Courts

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice, who was appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, with a two-year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or more, and less than $1,000; general jurisdiction over probate cases; and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors where punishment for the offense, upon conviction, is by fine exceeding $200, or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const., art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction (by trial de novo) over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Original and appellate judgments of the county courts may be appealed to the Courts of Appeals. The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ..." This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Presently, of the 254 county judges in the State, approximately one-fourth are licensed to practice law. Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to] conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto," the Legislature has created statutory county courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court. As of September 1, 1984, the Legislature had authorized a total of 144 of these statutory courts in 59 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office.

Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following county courts at law:

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in county-wide, partisan elections for four-year terms. Any vacancies occurring between elections are filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts uniformly require that the persons serving as judges must be licensed to practice law in Texas.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of the county courts at law with the district courts extends to a higher dollar amount in controversy than for "constitutional" county courts, but to determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

1. Effective 1-1-86 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.
2. Effective 1-1-88 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.
4. Authorized but not active as of 9-1-84.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent). Of the 144 statutory county-level courts authorized, 93 have either complete or limited probate jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts take many forms. In the creation of two county courts at law, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

- County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361)
- County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-372)

One county court at law may exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except civil cases with less than $500 in controversy, over which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction. 52

Justice of the Peace Courts

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least one, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected a justice of the peace. If the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, an additional justice of the peace is authorized. Approximately 940 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and only about eight percent of the justices of the peace in the State are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200 to $1,000. By statute, they are given jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer cases. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 32 counties, the county court, by special statute, has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justices of the peace in that county:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339D)

Municipal Courts

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 832 cities. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances. Such ordinances are generally punishable by fines up to $200, but since September 1, 1983, fines of up to $1,000 may be provided for violation of ordinances relating to fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits, when punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, except eight, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo.

Under the authority of special statutes, municipal courts in the following eight cities operate as "courts of record":

El Paso	Marshall
Houston	Midland
Longview	Sweetwater
Lubbock	Wichita Falls

Statutory authorization to establish municipal courts of record in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Odessa, and San Antonio has not been implemented.

In the courts of record, a formal record and transcript is made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. Such appeals are generally heard in the county court or county court at law, but the Legislature has authorized the City of El Paso to create a municipal court of appeals to hear appeals from that city's municipal courts. The statutes creating these municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this State. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 1,078 municipal judges in this State, slightly more than 38 percent presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few of the smaller cities of the State, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office range from two years to an indefinite term--at the will of the governing body.

1. Effective 1-1-86 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.
2. Effective 1-1-88 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.

Article 200a, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial districts in the State for administrative purposes. An active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience in a district court serves as the Presiding Judge, in each such district upon appointment by the Governor.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the judges in the administrative district to consult on the state of business in the courts. This conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the district. The Presiding Judge may assign active or retired district judges residing within the administrative district to any of the district courts within the administrative district. The Presiding Judge of one administrative district may request the Presiding Judge of another administrative district to assign a judge from that district to sit in a district court located in the administrative district of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative district for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

* Appointed effective 11-10-83, replacing Judge Max M. Rogers

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTAL COMPENSATION

Art. 6819a--18a, V.T.C.S., authorizes the counties in each Supreme Judicial District to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Art. 6813b, Sec. 3, V.T.C.S., authorizes associate justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined yearly salary from state and county sources of up to $1,000 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. This same provision authorizes the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of up to $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 1984, the yearly state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $76,500.

Various statutes pertaining to particular courts or counties allow the state salaries of district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. The 1984-85 General Appropriations Act, at Art. IV, Page 25, "Judiciary -- Special Provisions," Sec. 2, authorizes district court judges to receive a total salary of up to $1,000 less than the combined yearly salary from state and county sources received by associate justices of the Courts of Appeals in whose district the district court is located.

Justices of the Courts of Appeals

(Paid by the counties as of Sept. 1, 1984, in addition to the basic state salary of $69,300 for Chief Justices and $68,850 for Associate Justices)

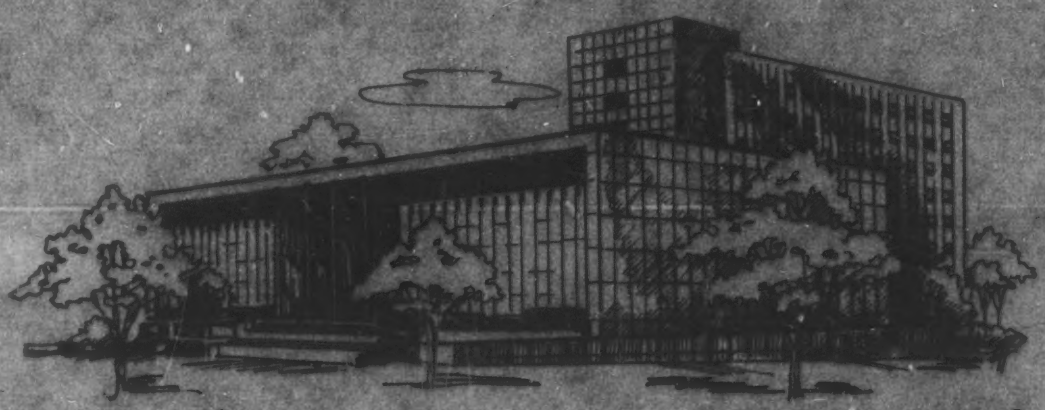
JUDICIAL BRANCH: REPORTS AND DEVELOPMENTS



SUPREME COURT BUILDING
AUSTIN, TEXAS

REPORTS OF JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by article 2328a, V.T.C.S., to make a ". . . continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods of its improvement." To enable it to fulfill these functions, the Council maintains statistics on docket activity of the courts of the State; conducts studies on methods to improve the administration of justice; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedures; and makes a detailed report upon the proceedings of the Council to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Supreme Court.

Three meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during Fiscal Year 1984 -- on September 16, 1983 and February 17 and June 22, 1984.

Membership of the Council

Council membership is composed of: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; (2) two justices of the Courts of Appeals; (3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts; (4) the chairman and immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; (5) seven members of the Bar appointed by the Governor, and (6) two non-lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist.

The Hon. Ben Z. Grant, Judge of the 71st District Court in Marshall, has served as president of the Judicial Council since July 1980. Before being elected to the bench in November 1980, Judge Grant had served for ten years as a member of the Texas House of Representatives. During that tenure, he served for three terms as chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and is a member of the Council as a result of that service.

Also serving as officers of the Council during fiscal year 1984 were the Hon. John L. Hill, Jr., then an attorney-member and now Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, vice president; and the Hon. Tom G. Davis, Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, secretary.

Chief Justice Jack Pope served as a member of the Council until his retirement. Judge Davis is the designee of the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Legislative members of the Council are: State Sen. Oscar H. Mauzy, chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Sen. Ray Farabee, immediate past chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Rep. Robert Bush, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Judge Grant, immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Members from the Courts of Appeals are: the Hon. Sam Bass, Associate Justice, First Court of Appeals, Houston; and the Hon. Paul C. Murphy, Associate Justice, Fourteenth Court of Appeals, Houston.

Members who are presiding judges of Administrative Judicial Districts include: the Hon. Ray L. McKim, Seventh Administrative Judicial District, Odessa; and the Hon. Charles J. Murray, Eighth Administrative Judicial District, Fort Worth.

Attorney members are: the Hon. John L. Hill, Jr., Austin; the Hon. John L. McCraw, Jr., McKinney; Mr. L. E. Frazier, Houston; Mr. Mark Martin, Dallas; the Hon. Abner McCall, Waco; Mr. Alan McNeill, Beaumont; and the Hon. Robert O. Smith, Austin.

Lay members include: Mr. Bill Hartman, Rosenberg, and Mr. Gene McLaughlin, Ralls.

Professional Education For Municipal Judges

Article 1200f, V.T.C.S., directs the Council to encourage the development of courses for the continuing legal education of municipal judges; to promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses and the accreditation of such courses; and to submit an annual report on the program to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Attorney General, and the mayor of the cities of those judges who have not attended an accredited course. The Council is empowered to grant waivers from the provisions of the law to individual judges.

During the year, 17 courses accredited by the Council were held and 546 municipal judges attended these courses. (See table on following page for details.) In addition, the Council granted six waivers from the education program.

The significance of this program greatly expanded in 1984 due to the amendment of article 1200f by H.B. 1068, effective January 1, 1984. That legislation made the continuing legal education requirements for municipal judges mandatory. The required courses were increased from eight hours to 12 hours. The initial 24-hour course for non-lawyer judges is continued. Additionally, a municipal court judges and personnel training fund was established, financed by a 50-cent court cost on non-parking and non-pedestrian offense convictions in municipal courts. The fund provides grants to statewide professional associations of municipal court judges and municipal court personnel for continuing education courses or seminars for those judges and personnel.

County Bail Bond Board Reports

The 67th Legislature enacted Senate Bill 727, relating to the regulation of bail bondsmen, which became effective August 31, 1981. Section 5 of the new statute (art. 2372p-3, V.T.C.S.) automatically creates a county bail bond board in counties having a population of more than 110,000, and authorizes other counties, at their option, to create a county bail bond board. Section 5(f)(8) provides that it will be the duty of the county bail bond boards:

> To file reports and furnish information on the operation of the bonding business in the county at the request of the Texas Judicial Council which shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1 of each year on the operation of the bonding business in the state.

A questionnaire and statistical report form was distributed to the counties involved, to be returned by November 18, 1983. Responses to the questionnaire were compiled into a report to the Governor and the Legislature. Because of the low response of counties to the request for information, a valid summarization of the bonding business statewide could not be made.

Committee on Best Utilization of Judicial Resources and Alternatives to Adjudication

A special Committee composed of Council members and others, was appointed in 1983 to study and report to the Council on measures to ensure the best utilization of judicial resources and alternatives to adjudication.

Members of the Committee were: Co- Chairmen — Judge Ben Z. Grant and Chief Justice Jack Pope; Council Members — Judge Tom Davis, Sen. Ray Farabee, Chief Justice-elect John Hill, Justice Paul Murphy, Judge Charles Murray, and Justice Joe Spurlock II; Judge Members — Judge Jim Clawson, Chief Justices William Cornelius and Frank Evans, and Judge Ruby Sondock; Lawyer Members — Ron Bird, Ronnie Earle, Bob Maloney, Blake Tartt, and Dain Whitworth; Legislative Members — Sen. Kent Caperton and (former) Rep. Mary Polk; and Lay Members — Dr. George Beto and Dr. Janice May.

The Committee met on August 6, 1983 and February 17, 1984. Following the February meeting, President Grant appointed subcommittees to study five topical areas, which met on the following dates: (1) ADMINISTRATION — LOCAL, REGIONAL, AND STATE, June 15, 1984; (2) ALTERNATIVES TO LITIGATION, September 7, 1984; (3) IMPROVING THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM, June 15, 1984; (4) RESOURCES AND SUPPORT FOR THE COURTS, June 14, 1984; (5) EFFECTIVE UTILIZATION OF JURIES, June 13, 1984.

The full Committee met on September 22, 1984 to consider the reports and recommendations of the subcommittees. After deliberating upon the studies and recommendations of the subcommittees, the Committee adopted the following recommendations as the report to the Council. The Council, meeting October 5, 1984, adopted these recommendations, amended as follows:

A. ADMINISTRATION — LOCAL, REGIONAL AND STATE

1. Time Standards

The Council recommends that the Supreme Court adopt time standards for the disposition of cases

2. Designation of Presiding Judges of Administrative Judicial Districts

The Council proposes an amendment to Article 200a, V.T.C.S., which would authorize the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to designate the presiding judges of Administrative Judicial Districts. Presently, this designation is made by the Governor.

3. Rules of Administration

The Council also proposes that uniform Rules of Administration be developed to be proposed for adoption by the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 2328b, V.T.C.S. These rules would provide that presiding judges:

a. Assume greater responsibility in the general oversight of docket management and local rules;
b. Encourage local judges to adopt administrative rules for handling non-judicial matters;
c. Call periodic meetings with the judges in counties with more than one district court;
d. Consult with the local district clerks to implement more efficient methods of docket management;
e. Study in detail the condition of the dockets in each county;
f. Implement systems to reduce delay in local dockets; and
g. Provide for orientation of new judges in the administrative district; and
h. That time standards for the disposition of cases be established and that the presiding judges monitor their effectiveness;
i. That a system be developed to ensure the full use of judge power throughout the State; and
j. That the Supreme Court, in consultation with the Council of Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Districts, provide uniform rules for the administration of the courts of the State.

B. IMPROVING THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

The Council urges that the Legislature consider a more flexible system of restitution centers, including removing some of the present restrictions on the types of offenders who may be committed to such centers. However, the prohibition against admission of offenders who were convicted of violent and other serious crimes should continue. The Legislature is urged to consider other alternatives to incarceration.

C. RESOURCES AND SUPPORT FOR THE COURTS

1. Support Fund for District Courts

The Council endorses the proposal of the Judicial Budget Board for inclusion in the State Appropriations Act of a $27,500 support fund for each district judge.

The Council recommends that this support fund be used to establish a specific personnel position, perhaps to be designated as a Court Manager, for each district court. This person would monitor the condition of the dockets on a continuous basis. A possible job description for such a position was reviewed by the Council.

2. Computer-Aided Transcription

The Council also recommends that the proposal of the Judicial Budget Board which provides $1 million for the purchase of computer-aided transcription systems for the state courts be approved, but that the development of specific details on the use of these funds be deferred until the committee on Court Technology, appointed by the Supreme Court, studies the area in more detail and submits its report.

D. ALTERNATIVES TO LITIGATION

1. Arbitration in Civil Cases

The Council proposes legislation and court rules to implement the use of mandatory but non-binding arbitration in many types of civil cases, other than family law matters. These rules would establish certain parameters for the types of civil cases which would benefit the most from arbitration, including a maximum amount in controversy and the subject-matter of the disputes subject to arbitration. If unsuccessful on appeal, sanctions against the party appealing an arbitration award de novo include the payment of attorney fees.

2. Mediation in Family Law Matters.

The Council recommends that mediation programs be established to aid trial courts in resolving certain controversies which arise in family law matters, such as child custody and support disputes.

3. Continuing Study and Support of Alternative Programs.

The Council will continue its study of alternative dispute resolution programs, including neighborhood justice centers, arbitration and mediation in criminal cases, and "mini-trials" for complex cases, in cooperation with committees of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas.

It was also recommended that the law schools of the State be encouraged to institute courses of study and seminars in alternatives to adjudication as a part of the regular and ongoing curriculum.

The Council recommended that the size of juries in District Courts be reduced to six persons in those civil cases in which no party files a timely demand for a twelve-member jury; that the size remain at twelve in criminal cases and in those civil cases in which any party does timely demand a twelve-member jury; and that when six-member juries are utilized that there be a proportionate reduction in the size of the panels from which such juries are to be selected.

The Council also continues to study possible measures to limit voir dire examination of jurors by attorneys. These studies include a review of recent case law and existing statutory provisions relating to voir dire examinations, prior recommendations of the Council, and legislation previously proposed but not enacted.

The Council also recommends that a set of standard instructions for jury panels be prepared. It suggests further study of the feasibility and practicality of the use of videotaped trials in which objectionable material is edited out before the videotape is shown to the jury.

Legal Representation for District Judges

The Council had several discussions on the matter of legal representation for district judges who are sued as a result of issuance of orders in administrative matters. The Council approved a proposed bill which would place the burden of proof on the party questioning the administrative order. This bill provides that challenges to an administrative order would be heard in the appellate court.

Courts of Inquiry

The Council approved the draft of a bill which would amend the provisions Chapter 52, Code of Criminal Procedure, regarding courts of inquiry. These amendments would authorize the institution of a court of inquiry by district courts exclusively, and then only after the filing of a sworn affidavit by the judge finding that good cause exists that an offense has been committed. The bill also requires the local district or county attorney to assist in courts of inquiry and establishs a method of payment of fees if an attorney is appointed.

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established in 1977 by article 2328b, V.T.C.S.. The Office operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute with the implementation of the provisions of the act and any rules of administration promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this State. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by the Office:

(1) assist the justices and judges of the various courts in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with and assist the administrative judges in discharging their duties under provisions of law and rules promulgated by the Supreme Court;

(3) make such recommendations to the Supreme Court as may be appropriate for the implementation of this act;

(4) examine the administrative and business methods and systems employed in the offices of the clerks of court and other offices related to and serving the courts and make recommendations for necessary improvement, and recommend forms and other documents used to record the business of the courts;

(5) examine the state of the dockets and practices and procedures of the courts and make recommendations for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice;

(6) prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and make recommendations on the expenditures of state funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(7) consult with and assist the clerks of court and other officers and employees of the courts and of offices related to and serving the courts to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(8) consult with and make recommendations to the court administrators and court coordinators of the courts of the State to provide for uniform administration and promote the efficient administration of justice in all courts of the State;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief Justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of the Office to be published in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council.

Article 2328b further provides that the Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council. In addition, under an order of the Supreme Court, the Office also provides staff support for the Court Reporters Certification Board.

Statistical Reporting Systems

Under the authority of article 2328a, section 5, V.T.C.S., which provides for the reporting of court activity and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the Office receives approximately 2,500 reports each month from the courts of the State. These reports are checked for accuracy and any necessary corrections are made. The information is then entered into a computerized data system. This provides ready access to the current status of the dockets of the courts throughout the State on a county-by-county basis. Numerous requests for this type of information are received each year.

The monthly reports are submitted on official forms developed in consultation with advisory committees of local court officials. These include a six-page report for the activities of the Courts of Appeals, an eight-page report for the district courts, a five-page report for county-level courts, and two-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts. Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Court Activity Reports

From the information reported to the Office, a monthly summary of district court activity is compiled for each of the nine administrative judicial districts of the State. These reports provide the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts current caseload data on all district courts within their administrative districts.

In addition, a quarterly report on docket activity in the district courts and the county-level courts is prepared and distributed to district and county-level judges and other interested parties.

Equalization of Courts of Appeals Dockets

The Supreme Court is responsible for equalizing the dockets of the Courts of Appeals (article 1738, V.T.C.S.). To assist the Court in docket equalization, this Office also maintains a monthly reporting system on the activity of the Courts of Appeals.

From the case data supplied by the Courts of Appeals, the Office prepares a monthly summary of the docket status of each Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court uses the Court of Appeals docket report to guide the transfer of cases between Courts of Appeals.

Supreme Court uses the Court of Appeals docket report to guide the transfer of cases between Courts of Appeals.

During fiscal year 1984 (which ended August 31, 1984), the Supreme Court ordered the following transfers between the Courts of Appeals:

Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System

As provided by law, the Fifty-fifth Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the Seventh Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in May, 1984. This 672-page report included statistical data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for calendar year 1983. Approximately 23,000 monthly statistical reports were compiled and validated during 1983 to produce the data in the Annual Report. The Annual Report also contained information on the variances in subject-matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts; a thorough, descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and other persons employed by the Texas Judicial System. Also included were statistics of assignments by presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial districts. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 4,000 copies were distributed.

Legislative Services

During fiscal year 1984, this Office continued its normal liaison duties with committees and members of the 68th Legislature. The staff worked closely with interim legislative study committees, including the Select Committee on the Judiciary, and drafted several bills for members of the Legislature, judges, and organizations to consider for introduction during the 69th Session.

Texas Judicial Report

The Office has published intermittently the Texas Judicial Report, a newsletter for judges, clerks and other court personnel.

Following the 68th Session of the Legislature, a special tabloid-sized edition of this newsletter, dealing with new legislation affecting the Judiciary, was published and widely distributed. Due to the positive reception of this special edition two subsequent issues were published, in December 1983, and May 1984. This report is now published three times a year.

State Budget Estimates for the Judiciary

The act establishing the Office of Court Administration directs the agency, under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to prepare and submit to the Legislature budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government.

In fulfilling this responsibility for the 68th Legislature, the Chief Justice appointed a Judicial Budget Board to develop a comprehensive budget for the operation of the judicial system of the State. At the direction of the Chief Justice, the staff of the Office of Court Administration has served as Secretariat to the Board to coordinate the preparation of budget requests by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members personally conferred with personnel and justices of each of the Courts of Appeals, the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the state-wide judicial agencies to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budget requests.

Technical Assistance to Trial Courts

Technical assistance was provided by the office to several trial courts of the State during the year. On-site assessments were made in each project. Some of the on-site evaluations were made in one or two days, while others required several visits. Since each county in the State is administered differently, all of the projects required considerable research time to enable the office to make proper needs-assessments and project findings. Following are examples of such assistance:

In September of 1983, on-site technical assistance was provided to the newly elected County and District Clerk of Zapata County related to the administrative procedures of several departments within his office.

The County Judge and Commissioners Court of Maverick County, through the County Auditor, requested technical assistance in January, 1984. After an on-site visitation, a central-intake criminal caseflow system, complemented by a court coordinator procedural support system, was recommended. Under the suggested system, the county jail is the central-intake facility for all criminal offenders in the county immediately following arrest. The courthouse-located Justice of the Peace serves as the magistrate, and all Justices of the Peace in the county alternate weekend duty. This system enables the courts to track all criminal cases from the point of arrest to disposition. The caseflow system was designed to effect disposition of felony cases within 120 days and misdemeanor cases within 60 days, and provides 1) prompt court action in all arrest and jail cases, 2) expeditious notice of arrest and ensuing court action to concerned criminal justice officials, and 3) compliance with the Speedy Trial Act.

At the request of the district judges of Travis County, court procedures, case processing and the jury management system of the district courts were evaluated in February, 1984. Because Travis County is a rapidly growing metropolitan area with multiple courts and heavy caseloads, this project required several on-site days to investigate and approximately four weeks to research and prepare conclusions and recommendations.

Currently, the Office is working on an extensive examination of the administrative procedures utilized by the trial courts of Brazos County. This county has developed and instituted a most innovative and comprehensive trial court management system. All district and county-level civil and criminal cases are completely monitored by the courts from the date of arrest in criminal cases and from the date of filing in civil cases. In felony cases, 72-hour probable cause hearings are held by the district courts, and misdemeanor cases are scheduled for first appearance in the County Court at Law within seven days following arrest. Civil cases are set within six months after filing. Established goals and timeframes ensure the timely disposition of all cases. The court coordinator sets and tracks each case as it proceeds through the court system.

Other requests for technical assistance are pending from Williamson, Jim Wells, Brooks, Bastrop, Burleson, Lee, Washington, Bowie and Cass Counties. Dates for assistance to these counties have been scheduled for fiscal year 1985.

Support to Other Agencies

The staff presented several lectures at seminars of the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association to aid in providing the schooling mandated by article 5972, V.T.C.S., and at seminars for municipal court judges conducted under the provisions of article 1200f, V.T.C.S. Presentations were also made at County and District Clerks Association conferences and the Texas Court Clerks Association seminars and meetings. These presentations provide technical assistance and aid in improving the reporting rates of the monthly court activity reports. Information on the Judicial branch of government and court activities was provided to numerous individual citizens and to many other state agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the Judiciary.

Court Reporters Certification Board

The Court Reporters Certification Board, originally established as the Texas Court Reporters Committee by the 65th Legislature, operates pursuant to Article 2324b, V.T.C.S., (hereinafter "act"), and in accord with rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas.

Under the act, effective August 29, 1977, no person may engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of Texas unless that person is certified as a shorthand reporter by the Supreme Court of Texas upon the recommendation of the Board.

Legislative Changes

The 68th Legislature adopted, effective September 1, 1983, a number of significant amendments to the act. First, an amendment changed the name of the agency from the Texas Court Reporters Committee to the Court Reporters Certification Board, to more properly reflect the work of the agency. Also, the Legislature expanded the membership of the Board from nine to twelve in order to include three lay members. Third, an amendment provided for certification by one of three approved methods of shorthand reporting: machine shorthand, oral stenography, or written shorthand. Applicants must now pass the examination by use of the method in which certification is sought. Finally, the Legislature expanded the disciplinary power of the Board to include, in addition to the previous power of the Board to revoke certification, the right to reprimand or suspend certified shorthand reporters.

Responsibilities of the Board

The Board is now empowered to: (1) review applications of persons engaged in court reporting prior to the effective date of the act for certification without examination; (2) develop and administer tests to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certification as shorthand reporters under the act; (3) collect fees from applicants for certificates and renewals of certificates; (4) determine the qualifications and pass on the eligibility of all persons applying for certification or recertification as shorthand reporters; (5) certify to the Supreme Court the applicants that are determined upon examination to be qualified as shorthand reporters; (6) conduct hearings on complaints filed against certified shorthand reporters; and (7) reprimand, suspend or revoke the certification of reporters for specified grounds, including unprofessional conduct.

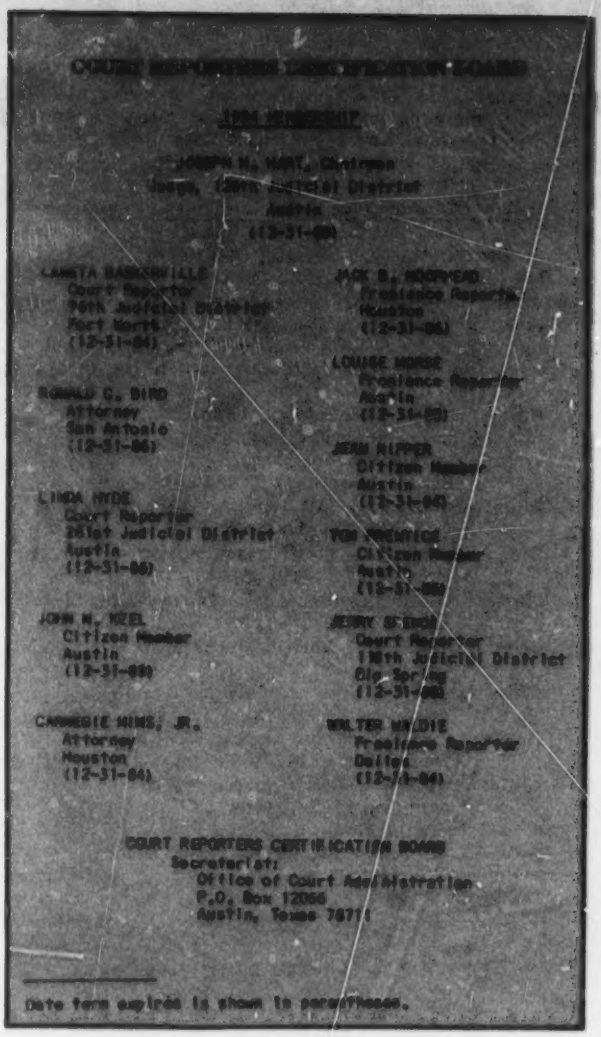
Activities of the Board

Under Section 10 of the act, court reporters who were actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of Texas prior to August 29, 1977, the effective date of the act, were given until September 1, 1984, to apply for registration without taking an examination. The Board has approved 982 persons for certification under this "grandfather clause."

Pursuant to Section 12(b) of the act, the Board administers tests to determine the qualifications of new applicants for certification. From September 1, 1983, until August 31, 1984, it administered four examinations to 483 applicants. One hundred seventy-one of these applicants successfully completed both the oral and written portions of the exam and were officially certified as shorthand reporters.

Under Section 13 of the act, the Board may, for specified grounds on a verified complaint, reprimand, suspend, or revoke the certification of a shorthand reporter, after notice and opportunity for a hearing. From September 1, 1983, until August 31, 1984, the Board reviewed six formal complaints against certified shorthand reporters. Two of these complaints were dismissed prior to hearing, two were heard, and two were pending.



Date term expires is shown in parentheses.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

[Report prepared and submitted by Robert C. Flowers, Executive Director.]

In fiscal year 1984, the State Commission on Judicial Conduct received and investigated complaints resulting in 343 dispositions — a 19% increase over fiscal year 1983. Procedural refinements in handling cases enabled the Commission to keep up with the increase, while continuing to consider carefully every complaint and to conduct the necessary investigations.

These improvements accompanied a renewed commitment to work with the public and the judiciary to meet the Commission's primary objectives: to preserve the integrity of all judges in the State; to ensure public confidence in the judiciary; and, to encourage judges to maintain high standards of both professional and personal conduct.

Authority of the Commission

A Constitutional amendment passed in 1965 provided for the establishment of the Judicial Qualifications Commission. At that time, only one other state, California, had such an organization; however, every state in the union has one today. The Texas agency evolved over the years, through several Constitutional amendments and a name change of name to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Currently, the Commission exercises jurisdiction over all state judges, ranging from municipal court judges to Texas Supreme Court justices. The basis for this authority may be found under article V, section 1-a, of the Texas

Constitution and article 5966a, V.T.C.S.

The Constitution identifies as cause for the removal of a judge willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the the proper performance of his duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice.

Conduct considered unacceptable includes, but is not limited to: failure to execute the business of the court in a timely manner, considering the quantity of complexity of that business; willful violation of a provision of the Texas penal statutes or the Code of Judicial Conduct; persistent or willful violation of the rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas; and incompetence in the performance of the duties of office. In addition, the Commission condemns the actions of judges who abuse the authority inherent in their positions and are rude or disrespectful to those appearing in their courts.

The Commission has the authority to require a judge to submit to physical or mental examination should be the judge's condition be considered as interfering with his or her ability to administer justice. If a judge is indicted for a felony offense, the Commission also has the authority to suspend the judge from office with or without pay. Finally, in order for the Commission to carry out its responsibilities, it was given the power of subpoena.

Procedures

The Commission operates under Rules and Regulations for the Removal or Retirement of Judges promulgated by the Supreme Court. These rules and the laws mentioned above specify Commission procedures.

Complaints, including the papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission, are confidential. Complaints may be introduced in person, by telephone, or through the mail. Most often, a complainant telephones the office to make initial inquiries concerning the Commission. Many problems or questions are resolved at this point. If not, the staff sends to interested persons an information sheet describing the Commission, its jurisdiction, and its procedures, and an affidavit form to be used for the complaint. About one-third of the persons to whom the information sheet and the affidavit are sent do not return the affidavit.

Once the Commission receives a completed affidavit, the executive director reviews the complaint and assigns it to a staff member to determine whether it falls within the Commission's jurisdiction. Numerous complaints are screened out at this phase. Many of these cases stem from emotional trials such as criminal or family law matters. One party's displeasure with the judge's decision does not mean that the judge is guilty of misconduct. Often, complainants attempt to appeal their cases through the Commission rather than through the proper appellate channels.

If the case appears as though it may involve judicial misconduct, the complainant is notified that the Commission received the complaint. In instances involving vague generalizations, a complainant may be requested to be more specific or to describe first-hand knowledge. By requesting this information, the Commission screens complaints so that judges are asked to respond only to potentially valid complaints.

Often, a discussion with the complainant followed by a telephone call to the judge resolves the problem which served as the basis of the complaint. At other times, the judge is sent a copy of the complaint and asked to respond.

The Commission meets once every two months. Prior to the meeting, each Commissioner receives a briefing notebook which contains briefs on every complaint under consideration.

The more serious matters are termed "agenda items." For agenda items, Commissioners are provided a copy of the complaint, the judge's response, and other evidence that might aid them in their deliberations. The less serious complaints are called "undocketed complaints." While they are important and may require a substantial commitment of staff time, they are less likely to result in a formal sanction. Even complaints that do not come under the Commission's jurisdiction are included in the briefing book. Thus, at some time, every complaint received by the Commission will appear in a briefing notebook.

Commission Sanctions

After reviewing the complaints, the Commissioners have available several options. They might decide to pass the matter so that staff can gather additional data, or Commissioners might want to give the judge an opportunity to appear informally before them to explain his or her side of the matter. In cases involving a judge suspended due to an indictment, the Commission may choose to place the complaint in a suspense file pending the outcome of the legal proceedings. Other complaints are placed in the suspense/monitor file when their disposition may involve consideration of the outcome of another event, such as a court decision.

The Commission may also choose to dismiss complaints. Complaints resulting in dismissals usually involve one of the following: cases not within Commission jurisdiction (such as matters of appeal or complaints against law enforcement officials, attorneys, and spouses); instances where the judge acted within his or her discretion; or misunderstandings or problems resolved by Commission intervention.

The Commission may issue letters of admonition pointing out why a particular action was inappropriate and suggesting a better means for dealing with similar situations in the future.

A stronger sanction is a private reprimand which tells the judge that he or she has erred and specifically enumérates the reasons such conduct brings discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice.

A public reprimand is imposed when the Commission believes that the public and the judiciary would be best served by a public statement of the judge's misconduct.

Still stronger sanctions are reserved for extremely serious misconduct. Should the Commission decide to institute formal proceedings, the judge and the complainant are notified. The Commission establishes a hearing date and decides whether the hearing will be held before the Commission or a master appointed by the Supreme Court.

In the formal proceedings phase, the complaint loses its confidential nature. The proceedings are open to the public and all papers, documents, and other evidence introduced during the formal hearing are public. During the hearing, the judge has the right to be confronted by his accusers, to defend against the charges, and to be represented by counsel. After the formal hearing, the Commission may dismiss the complaint, issue an order of public censure, or recommend to the Supreme Court the censure, removal, or retirement of the judge.

The Supreme Court reviews the record of the proceedings on the law and the facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence. After considering the case, the Court may order public censure, retirement, or removal, or it may reject the Commission's recommendation. Judges who are removed or retired by the Supreme Court may be prohibited from holding judicial office in the future.

The law requires that the Commission notify a complainant of the disposition of his or her complaint. The statute also specifies and limits the manner in which a complainant must be notified: the complaint has no basis and has been dismissed; appropriate action has been taken, the nature of which will not be disclosed; or, formal proceedings have been instituted. Should formal proceedings be instituted, a record of those proceedings is public information.

Constitutional Amendment Changes Commission

In November of 1984, the voters of Texas adopted a Constitutional amendment, House Joint Resolution 4, which provides for several changes involving the Commission and takes effect January 1, 1985. Its provisions alter membership, change Commission procedures, and expand Commission jurisdiction.

During fiscal year 1984, Commission membership included two appellate justices and two district judges, but H.J.R. 4 provides for one of each. A municipal court judge and a county court at law judge will be added to the Commission, thus maintaining the total number of Commissioners at eleven.

Another change called for by the amendment expands cause for removal of a judge. The description of improper behavior in the Constitution is enhanced with the addition of: willful or persistent violation of the rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas; incompetence in performing the duties of office; and willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct. The statute already includes these provisions which were added with the passage of House Bill 44 in 1983.

One of the major changes resulting from the amendment is an increase in the number of judges who come under Commission jurisdiction. The Commission will have authority over masters and magistrates appointed as provided by law to serve in trial courts of the State and over retired and former judges who, as judicial officers, continue to sit by assignment.

Another important provision of the Constitutional amendment gives the Commission several additional alternatives for disciplinary action. The Commission is given the authority to require that a person obtain additional training or education, and it is given the power to issue warnings. Commissioners will also be able to suspend from office, with or without pay, a judge charged with a misdemeanor involving official misconduct.

Finally, Commission procedures are altered with the introduction of a review tribunal. In the past, recommendations from the Commission regarding the removal or retirement of a judge were made to the Supreme Court. Under H.J.R. 4, those recommendations will go to a review tribunal instead.

The tribunal will be composed of justices of Courts of Appeals who are selected by lot by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Each Court of Appeals will designate one of its members to be eligible for selection and the Chief Justice will select seven to serve on the review tribunal. Decisions of the review tribunal may be appealed to the Supreme Court under the substantial evidence rule.

These changes become effective January 1, 1985. Anyone having questions regarding the amendment may contact the Commission for further information.

Examples of Proper and Improper Conduct

Proper Conduct -- A complainant alleged that a judge "argued with her in front of everybody" after the conclusion of a trial in which she was involved. Inquiry into the case revealed, instead, that the judge had acted properly. The complainant's attorney stated, "The judge bent over backwards to her to try and explain her rights after the trial was over." As the Commission's investigation revealed no improper conduct, the complain was dismissed.

Proper Conduct -- Periodically, the Commission receives complaints regarding speeding tickets. Usually, the complainants are not local residents and they feel they were victims of a speed trap. Whether or not that is the case, when they complain about the judge fining them for the offense, they do not allege judicial misconduct. Rather, their grievance concerns law enforcement practices. (For further information on judicial discretion in this area, see the following example of improper conduct.)

Improper Conduct -- A judge received a private reprimand for dismissing a case prior to placing it on his docket and calling it for trial. The case involved a traffic citation and there are no provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure authorizing a judge to dismiss any criminal complaint on the judge's own motion. Attorney General's Opinion MW-441 indicates that the judge would have authority to dismiss after filing if there were a fatal flaw within the complaint itself. However, that was not the situation in this case. The Commission reminded the judge the State as well as the defendant must be offered its day in court.

Improper Conduct -- A judge who denied a jury trial because he believed there was not enough time to make arrangements for one received a private reprimand. The denial was inappropriate as the requesting party complied with article 2460a, Texas Revised Civil Statutes which states, "If either party desires a trial by jury, he shall at least one (1) calendar day prior to the day upon which the hearing is to be held, file with the small claims court a request for a trial by jury. . . " Included in the letter of private reprimand to the judge was a discussion of the law in this area.

Improper Conduct -- Several justices of the peace were publicly reprimanded for failure to report and remit fees collected on behalf of the county for providing birth and death certificates to members of the public. Although there appears to be some confusion in this area among judges, the law is quite specific in stating that the money must be turned over to the county.

Improper Conduct -- A judge resigned after engaging in conduct clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties, including suggesting sexual favors in return for favors provided through his capacity as a judge. A resignation in a situation such as this is in lieu of further action by the Commission. Judges who resign or retire under these circumstances, agree never to sit again as judicial officerS.

Commission Concerns

During fiscal year 1984, the Commission faced several situations in which a judge's actions fell within the letter of the law, yet received much criticism, or in which the letter of the law was unclear. These situations are discussed here in hopes that the Legislature will consider whether statutory changes need to be made to modify current laws in these areas:

1. Weddings -- The Commission has received a number of complaints alleging that judges are neglecting their official duties to perform weddings, for which they are paid over and

b. Judges counted in this category, resigned in lieu of further Commission action. The Commission appreciates that the majority of judges who resign or retire do so to conclude an honorable career.

c. The Commission has the authority to suspend a judge after he or she is indicted for a felony offense. The practice of the Commission is to give the judge the opportunity to "voluntarily" suspend himself or herself.

above their salaries. However, current law provides an incentive to conduct marriage ceremonies rather than to attend to other judicial duties.

2. Courts of Inquiry -- Courts of Inquiry were designed to meet jurisdictional needs not addressed in other forums; however, flexibility of the statute provides the potential for abuse. In the past year, Courts of Inquiry have been rediscovered, and the Commission has received complaints regarding these proceedings. In almost every case, the complaint centered around an abuse of authority, yet a Court of Inquiry has almost unlimited power. While the Commission might take action on the complaints, there is no reason to assume that the abuses will stop unless the potential for that abuse is altered.
3. Campaign Advertising -- The advertising issue combines several elements to form a particularly complex legislative challenge. Judges fear being an incumbent judge involved in a hotly contested race against a contender not bound by the Code of Judicial Conduct. The Commission is in an awkward position. A bitter campaign seldom enhances the integrity of the judiciary, yet the Commission cannot discipline a candidate who is not a judge. Nor would justice put the incumbent judge at a disadvantage.
4. Appearances before the Commission -- As mentioned in the fiscal year 1983 report, the Commission desires a clarification of its authority to provide judges the opportunity to appear at Commission meetings prior to the initiation of formal proceedings. Under current practice, such informal appearances enable the Commission to dispose of many complaints in a more timely and effective way than if the judges were not permitted to speak to the Commission. In this format, the judge may informally and confidentially discuss matters in issue, and the judge may be assisted by counsel if he or she so desires. The Commission's concern addresses a provision in House Bill 44 passed last session that "no hearing before the Commission shall be had during the investigatory stage." The Commission hopes that clause does not preclude the current practice of informal, confidential appearances and believes the wording of the clause should be clarified.

Composition of the Commission

The Commission on Judicial Conduct is composed of eleven members. Current composition includes two justices of the Court of Appeals, two district judges, and one justice of the peace, all of whom are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas. The Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas chooses two members of the State Bar, each of whom has practiced at least ten consecutive years. Finally, the Governor of Texas appoints four lay citizens at least thirty years of age.

a. The difference between these figures results from complaints pending, beginning of period.

b. Judges counted in this category resigned in lieu of further Commission action. the Commission appreciates that the majority of judges who resign or retire do so to conclude an honorable career.

c. The Commission has the authority to suspend a judge after he or she is indicted for a felony offense. The practice of the Commission is to give the judge the opportunity to "voluntarily" suspend himself or herself before the Commission exercises its authority.

Judicial Budget Board

By order of the Supreme Court, the Judicial Budget Board was established under the provisions of Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., to prepare and submit a unified budget for the judicial branch of government to the Session of the Legislature.

The members of the Judicial Budget Board are: Chief Justice Jack Pope and Justice Robert M. Campbell of the Supreme Court, designated as the Chairman; Judge Michael J. McCormick of the Court of Criminal Appeals; the following Chief Justices of the Courts of Appeals: Frank G. Evans, Houston (1st); Austin McCloud, Eastland; and Paul W. Nye, Corpus Christi; the following Associate Justices of the Courts of Appeals: Lee Duggan, Jr., Houston (1st); Bob Gammage and Bob Shannon, Austin; and Joe Spurlock II, Fort Worth; and the following District Judges: Ray D. Anderson, Brownfield; Neil Caldwell, Angleton; Barbara G. Culver, Midland; Ben Z. Grant, Marshall; Raul L. Longoria, Edinburg; W. T. McDonald, Jr., Bryan; Charles Murray, Fort Worth; and R. E. Thornton, Graham.

The state Office of Court Administration provides the necessary staff support for the operation of the Budget Board. In addition, a cooperative effort has been developed with the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning.

Preliminary Work

The staffs of the Legislative Budget Board, the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning, and the Office of Court Administration jointly developed simplified budget request documents for the Board. These documents were used by the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Courts of Appeals and the judicial agencies included in Article IV of the current Appropriations Act. In addition, the Board developed a budget document for use by the district judges and the presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial districts. It also developed an extensive survey form to enable the individual judges to identify their most critical needs which was sent to each district judge.

These forms were returned to the Judicial Budget Board early in 1984 for the development of the unified judicial budget. The unified budget and supporting documents, including the budget requests documents, were provided to the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning to be used in developing the Appropriations Bill for submission to the 69th Session of the Legislature.

The Board met three times in early 1984 to make decisions on policy matters and to recommend specific items for the unified judicial budget. The policies adopted include:

(1) a simplified appropriations format for the appellate courts to allow those courts more flexibility in the use of funds appropriated;
(2) the carry over of unexpended funds from one year to the next;
(3) a state salary for district judges of 85 percent of the salary of justices of the Supreme Court (this would not affect the authorization of local supplements for district judges);
(4) a statewide fund to provide support personnel and equipment to individual district courts; and
(5) a self-supporting judicial retirement system for new judges coming under the retirement system.

In arriving at these policies, the Judicial Budget Board considered the present financial condition of the State, the needs assessments by the individual judges, and studies and surveys of similar situations in other states.

The total state appropriated funds increased 16 percent in the last Appropriations Bill and the amount appropriated for the Judiciary (including Judicial Retirement) increased 21 percent. However, the percentage of state funds used to support the Judiciary increased only two one-hundredths of one percent (0.02%:) -- from 0.35% to 0.37% of the total budget.

In 1940, almost one and a half of a percent (1.40%) of the state budget was spent on the Judiciary. For 1985, that percentage is a little over one-third of one percent (0.37%).

From 1940 to 1985, total state expenditures increased 9,298 percent ($166 million to $15.6 billion). Funds for the Judiciary over the same time period increased 2,000 percent ($2.4 million to $50.4 million).

Addressing the Needs of the District Courts

The last session of the Legislature addressed the needs of the Courts of Appeals to meet their new responsibilities resulting from the adoption of the constitutional amendment vesting those courts with jurisdiction in criminal appeals. The Board recommends that the 69th Session address the needs of the district courts. Of the increases recommended by the Judicial Budget Board, 81.7% are for operations of the district courts.

One of the most significant recommendations of the Board is that the state-paid salary of district judges be 85% of the salary of Justices of the Supreme Court. The Board also recommended that the Legislature authorize local supplementation of salaries of district judges up to $1,000 of that paid to the highest paid Associate Justice of a Court of Appeals having jurisdiction in the same territory as the district court.

A recent survey of judicial salaries by the National Center for State Courts, dated May 1984, indicates Texas ranks seventh among the states in supreme court justices' salaries but twenty-first in district court judges' salaries. At the 85% salary level recommended by the Board, Texas would rank sixth among the states for salaries of its district judges.

At the request of the Judicial Budget Board, the Office of Court Administration prepared a survey to identify the needs of the district judges of the State. From this survey, three items were identified as being major, unfilled needs of the district courts: support personnel; a state-funded district court support fund, similar to that presently provided to district attorneys; and automated equipment to be used in the preparation of trial transcriptions.

At the second meeting of the Judicial Budget Board, further study was given to the personnel needs of the district courts. After reviewing the budget requests from 290 district judges, the survey of district court needs, and the other studies, the Board made these determinations:

(1) that local supplementation of district judges salaries be allowed up to a sum of $1,000 less than that paid to the highest paid justices of any Court of Appeals having jurisdiction in the same territory as the district court. (An Attorney General's opinion has previously held that present law limits local supplementation to the lowest paid justice of any Court of Appeals in the same district.);
(2) that the present ceiling of $1,500 per county for district judge expenses in multi-county districts, which is now included in the Appropriations Act, be deleted;
(3) that a new item be included in the Appropriations Act to provide for an appropriation up to $27,500 for each district judge to pay salaries of employees, and other necessary expenses in each judicial district;
(4) that a "maintenance of support" provision be included to require counties to continue support for the district courts at or above the same level as provided by the counties on the effective date of the Appropriations Act; and
(5) that a fund be established to provide computer assisted transcription equipment to those counties which need them. This fund will be in addition to the $27,500 support fund.

Judicial Retirement

The Judicial Budget Board determined that a solution to the funding problem of the Judicial Retirement System is of utmost importance and should be addressed by the 69th Session of the Legislature.

The Judicial Budget Board, however, strongly recommends that the provisions of the current retirement system should remain intact for all presently sitting and retired judges. Any changes to the retirement system should apply only to those who enter judicial service after the revision of the retirement system. The Board recommends that the retirement system be fully funded for all future judges.

Administrative Judicial Districts

Recognizing that the presiding judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Districts of the State perform duties which are essentially state functions, the Board recommended that they be funded by state appropriations. While article 200a, V.T.C.S., authorizes compensation to the presiding judges for their services, funds for this purpose have never been appropriated and this compensation is presently obtained from administrative district funds. Prior to the last session of the Legislature, the State has not provided funds for the operations of the administrative district offices or for the payment of salaries for administrative help. The last session provided funds to pay approximately 50% of the salary of administrative assistants for seven of the nine presiding judges, but provided no operating expenses.

Because these offices serve a state function, the Board recommends that the Legislature provide state appropriations to pay the $5,000 compensation authorized by article 200a for service as a presiding judge (without impairment of the additional compensation authorized for retired judges who serve as presiding judges as authorized by sections 11(b) and 11(c) of article 200a). State salaries should also be provided for administrative assistants to the presiding judges and certain general administrative office expenses. The Board also recommended that a new position of "docket manager" be funded for the First and Second Administrative Judicial Districts, due to the large volume of cases in these districts.

Appellate Courts

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 invested the fourteen courts of appeals of the State with intermediate appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases. The last session of the Legislature addressed some of the needs of these courts created by this additional workload. However, a number of areas were left unaddressed. The Board has reviewed the needs of these courts and has recommended funding those needs which were not provided.

In considering the number of, and salary for, the exempt attorney positions for the appellate courts, the Board conducted an extensive survey of how similar positions are utilized by the appellate courts in other states. This information was compared with the rate of case dispositions to enable the Board to determine the best utilization of this support. Based upon this analysis, the Board recommended that the level of research attorneys for each court of appeals be increased from the present level of one research attorney for each three-judge panel to two research attorneys for each three-judge panel.

The Board also developed a two-step classification for briefing attorneys. Under this recommendation, a briefing attorney in the first year of employment would be classified as Briefing Attorney I with an annual salary of $26,400, while the briefing attorney with at least one year of service would be classified as a Briefing Attorney II with an annual salary of $27,500.

According to a recent survey, Texas ranks forty-sixth in salaries for its appellate clerks. The Board recommends salaries of $39,000 for clerks of the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, and $36,000 for clerks of the Courts of Appeals.

The Board also recommends a rider be inserted in the Judiciary Article of the Appropriations Bill to provide greater flexibility in the employment of personnel. This rider establishes a list of exempt positions which may be employed in lieu of other exempt positions authorized by the Appropriations Act.

The Board recommends travel funds for the appellate courts under the following formula:

$3,300 per chief justice;
$2,400 per associate justice;
$3,000 to $6,000 for staff, depending on the size of the court.

In addition to the amount provided by this formula, an additional $10,000 is recommended for the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Board also requests that a new provision be included in the Appropriations Act which would allow the transfer of unused appropriations from one Court of Appeals to another, with the concurrence of each of the affected courts and the Supreme Court.

Simplified Appropriation Patterns

The Board recommends that a simplified appropriations pattern, similar to that used in the other articles of the Appropriation Act, be utilized for the appellate courts and judicial agencies. This would provide greater flexibility in the use of appropriations and allow more effective use of the funds appropriated. The Board further recommends that authority to transfer any unexpended balance into the next fiscal year be inserted into the Appropriations Bill and that each court be given greater flexibility in utilizing any of the positions now included in the state classified positions.

ADVISORY OPINIONS ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

Rendered During Year

At the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct, effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. The opinions of this Committee handed down since publication of the 1983 Annual Report are reproduced below.

OPINION NO. 73

Question: Does a judge subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct violate the Code by publicly endorsing a candidate for public office?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that such action would violate the Code of Judicial Conduct. The heading under Canon 7 states that a judge should refrain from political activity inappropriate to his judicial office. Paragraph A of Canon 7 states:

> Political Conduct in General. Any candidate for judicial office, including an incumbent judge, and others acting on his behalf, should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable belief that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy.

The essence of Canon 7A is that a judge should not use the prestige of his office to advance his own private interests. It naturally follows that if he cannot use this power or prestige to help his own candidacy, he should not do this for others.

Canon 2B is similar to 7A in that it prohibits a judge from lending the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others.

Further, Canon 1 directs a judge to maintain the independence of the judiciary, and Canon 2A requires a judge to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

It is difficult for a judge to realistically separate the prestige of his office from his personal affairs. Thus, the Committee is of the opinion that the public endorsement of another person's candidacy, of necessity, involves the use of the prestige of the judge and the prestige of his office. Additionally, a judge's involvement in another person's political race places the judge in a partisan posture and gives the public cause to question the judge's independence. Thus, the described activity violates the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(Adopted by the Committee on Judicial Ethics this 9th day of March, 1984, one member dissenting.)

OPINION NO. 74

Question: Does a judge violate the Code of Judicial Conduct by serving on the Disciplinary Review Committee of the State Bar of Texas?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that such service does not violate the Code of Judicial Conduct, so long as it does not conflict with or affect the performance of judicial duties. Canon 4A permits a judge to participate in activities concerning the law, the legal system and the administration of justice. Service on the Disciplinary Review Committee, which oversees and hears appeals from local grievance committees, is clearly an activity that concerns the legal system. The Committee is aware that Canon 5G prohibits service on most governmental committees and commissions. However, that Canon contains an exception for the activities listed in Canon 4A.

(Approved by the Committee on Judicial Ethics this 20th day of September 1984, one judge dissenting.)

OPINION NO. 75

Facts: The television program 20/20 wants to film the voir dire examination of a jury panel in a criminal case. The film will be used in a 20/20 program to educate and inform the public on the voir dire procedure. The defendant has consented to the filming, which will be done in an unobstrusive manner that does not detract from the dignity of the proceedings. The film will not be exhibited until after the trial is over.

Question: Does a judge violate the Code of Judicial Conduct by permitting the described filming?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that the trial judge would violate Canon 3A(7) by permitting the described activity. That Canon prohibits filming or recording in a courtroom and areas adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions. Although various exceptions are permitted, the described activity does not fit within the exceptions because there is no assurance that the display of the film will be delayed until all direct appeals have been exhausted [Canon 3A(7)(c)(iii)]. Also, the use of the film in a commercial television program that is displayed to the general public does not satisfy the requirement that "the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions." [Canon 3A(7)(c)(iv)].

(Unanimously adopted by the Committee on Judicial Ethics this 6th day of August, 1984.)

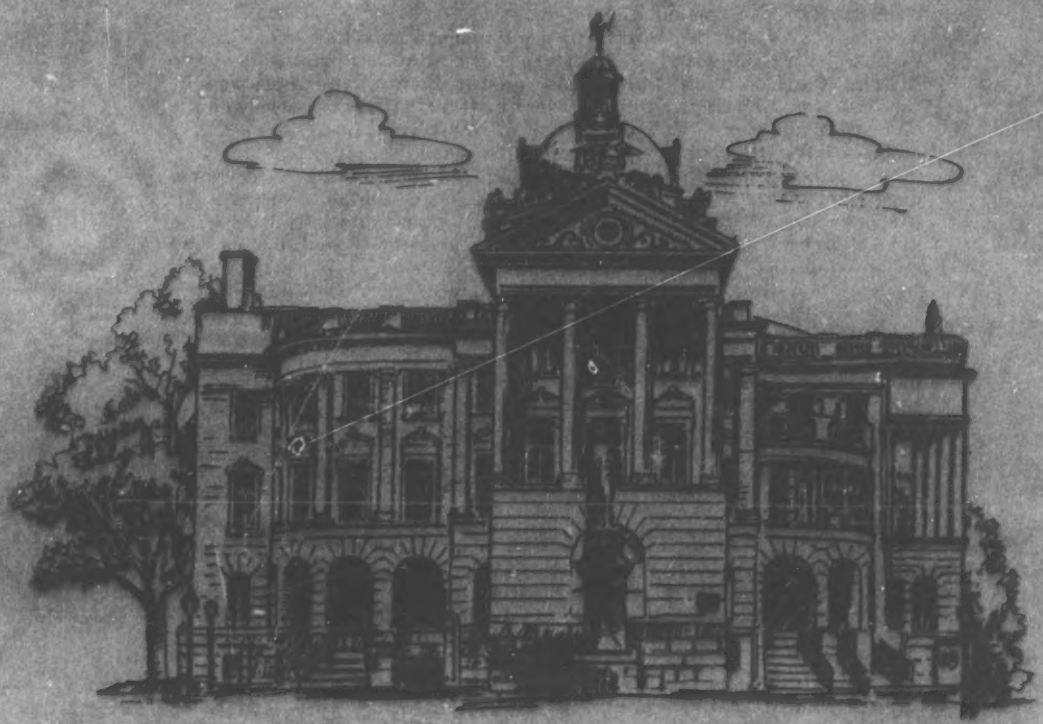
COURT ACTIVITY: SUMMARIES AND ANALYSES



OLD COURTHOUSE, HARRISON COUNTY
(1900 - 1965)
MARSHALL

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least four factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, juvenile board duties and responsibilities, and many other matters.
4. In lieu of a conviction and sentence, present statutes authorize a judge to place defendants on "deferred adjudication" and to impose conditions similar to those of regular probation. A case in which deferred adjudication is granted remains on the docket as a pending case and does not appear as a disposition in court statistics until the defendant has completed all conditions of deferred adjudication and the case is dismissed, or the defendant is sentenced upon failure to comply with the conditions imposed, even though it requires both time and resources of the court.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

TEXAS COURTS

Overview of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1984

[In June, 1983, the Supreme Court and the Texas Judicial Council directed the state Office of Court Administration to publish its Annual Report on the state fiscal year basis -- Sept. 1 to Aug. 31 -- rather than a calendar year basis as in the past. Accordingly, the court activity contained in this report covers the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, and court activity for four months (September through December, 1983), which was included in the 1983 Report, is repeated in this report.]

APPELLATE COURTS

The Texas Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Courts of Appeals all reported more dispositions of regular causes or cases than filings during the reporting period which ended August 31, 1984.

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court disposed of 77 percent of the regular causes docketed during fiscal year 1984 or carried over from the previous year, compared to a 71 percent disposition rate during calendar year 1983.

The number of applications for writs of error filed in the Supreme Court rose 40 percent from calendar year 1983 to fiscal year 1984. A total of 987 applications were filed, compared to 703 in 1983. The ten-year average is 799.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 59 percent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. The rate of disposition was down from 70 percent in calendar 1983 but above the 52 percent rate for 1982.

The number of petitions for discretionary review filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals increased 9 percent from calendar year 1983 to fiscal year 1984. A total of 1,281 petitions were filed, compared to 1,177 in 1983.

Courts of Appeals

The intermediate Courts of Appeals reduced both their civil and criminal pending caseloads during the fiscal year. These 14 courts disposed of 8,274 total cases during the year, an average of 103 dispositions (59 criminal and 44 civil) per justice.

This was the first time calendar 1973 that the Courts of Appeals ended a reporting year with fewer civil cases on their dockets than when the year began, and the second consecutive year that criminal caseloads were reduced.

Origin of Appeals

Fifty-one percent of the 1980 Texas population lived in the eight most populous counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, and Nueces), with 28 percent living in Harris and Dallas counties.

Of all cases filed in the Courts of Appeals, 58 percent of civil appeals and 62 percent of criminal appeals originated in the trial courts of the eight most populous counties.

Harris and Dallas counties accounted for 34 percent of the civil appeals and 42 percent of the criminal appeals filed in the Courts of Appeals. These two counties also account for 33 percent of the applications for writs of error filed in the Supreme Court and 47 percent of the petitions for discretionary review filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals.

TRIAL COURTS

District Courts

During fiscal year 1984, the district courts disposed of 41.7 percent of the total number of cases on their dockets -- compared to 43.3 percent during calendar 1983 -- while experiencing a 0.9 percent increase in new cases filed.

The ten most populous counties had an increase of 2.0 percent of new cases, while all other counties had a 0.6 percent drop. An average of 1,220 cases per judge were disposed of in fiscal 1984, a decrease of 2.9 percent from the 1983 average of 1,256 per judge.

Thirty death sentences (compared to 33 in 1983) and 306 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during fiscal 1984.

The 137,247 divorce actions accounted for 31 percent of all cases handled by the district courts, which was one-half of one percent less than in 1983.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1984 -- 620,186 -- was 6.2 percent higher than the 583,761 pending at the beginning of the fiscal year. Criminal cases pending increased by 4.4 percent while civil cases pending at the end of 1983 were up 6.7 percent.

County, Justice, and Municipal Courts

County-level courts disposed of 51.6 percent of the 1,048,294 cases on their dockets during fiscal 1984. Criminal cases accounted for 75 percent of new cases filed or appealed from lower courts, with driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs accounting for 31.5 percent of these cases.

The reporting justice of the peace courts disposed of 82 percent of more than 2.1 million cases filed; reporting municipal courts disposed of 79 percent of nearly 6.8 million cases filed. Two-thirds of all cases filed in justice of the peace courts and 91 percent of municipal court filings were traffic cases. Justice of the peace courts reported $65.5 million in revenues collected during the year. Municipal court reported revenues totalled $139 million.

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1984

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is composed of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The number of applications for writs of error filed in the Supreme Court during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984 increased substantially from calendar year 1983. A total of 987 applications were filed, compared to 703 in 1983--an increase of 40 percent, and 24 percent more than the ten-year average of 799.

In state fiscal year 1984, 94 new "regular causes"--primarily cases in which the Court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion--reached the docket, compared to 127 in calendar year 1983 and the ten-year average of 113. New civil mandamus matters decreased from 142 in 1983 to 113 in fiscal 1984.

The Supreme Court disposed of 77 percent of the regular causes docketed during fiscal 1984 or carried over from 1983, compared to 71 percent in 1983. Seventy-four percent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, 5 percent less than during 1983.

The Court delivered 106 deciding opinions in the year ending August 31, 1984, 18 percent less than the 125 opinions in 1983. A total of 154 opinions were written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 17 per justice. The Supreme Court disposed of 885 applications for writs of error from decisions of the Courts of Appeals, compared to 705 in 1983, for an average of 98 per justice. Ten percent of the 885 applications were granted. Of the granted writs, the Courts of Appeals were reversed in 61 percent of the cases, for an effective reversal rate on applications for writs of error from the Courts of Appeals of 7 percent.

Thirty-three regular causes were pending on August 31, 1984--19 less than at the end of 1983, and 8 cases less than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket on August 31, 1984 was 308--69 percent more than the 182 at the end of 1983, and 74 percent more than the ten-year average of 177.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. Regular causes are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the Court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. "Cases Other Than Regular Causes" include such actions as the Court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of regular causes.

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. Additionally, pursuant to article 1811e, V.T.C.S., special commissioners may be designated to serve as needed to aid and assist the Court.

Until September 1, 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals received all criminal cases appealed from the district and county-level trial courts of the State. On that date, a constitutional amendment together with implementing legislation became effective which conferred on the 14 Courts of Appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those in which the death penalty was assessed. Appeal of these death penalty cases remains direct to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Decisions by the Courts of Appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for discretionary review by the State or defendant, or the Court may review a decision on its own motion.

Jurisdiction Change Reduces Filings

Conferring of criminal jurisdiction on the Courts of Appeals has greatly reduced the number of new cases filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals. In calendar year 1983, a total of 492 new cases were filed, 319 of them by petition for discretionary review granted by the Court. During the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, there was a total of 486 new cases filed, 300 of them by petition for discretionary review. The 486 new cases represent a decrease of 1 percent from calendar year 1983. In addition to those cases which were added to the docket, the Court also reviewed 778 other petitions for discretionary review which were refused.

This reduction in the number of cases presented to the Court of Criminal Appeals has enabled the Court to make a substantial reduction of the backlog of pending cases. There were 2,471 cases pending with the Court at the beginning of 1982. This number had been reduced to 1,400 pending cases at the end of that year, to 555 at the end of 1983, and to 486 on August 31, 1984. This represented a decrease in the backlog of 80 percent since January 1, 1982.

The number of applications for writs of habeas corpus decreased slightly from calendar year 1983. For the year ending August 31, 1984, there was a total of 1,797 applications filed, 11 percent fewer than the 2,038 applications filed in calendar year 1983.

Rate of Dispositions

During fiscal year 1984, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 59 percent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from previous years. In calendar year 1983, this disposition rate was 70 percent.

Of the total dispositions, 57 percent were disposed of by per curiam opinion in the fiscal year. In calendar year 1983, 58 percent were disposed of by per curiam opinions. There were 871 opinions (including dissents and concurrences) written in fiscal year 1984 as compared with 1,404 opinions written in calendar year 1983. Fifty-four percent of the opinions written in fiscal year 1984 were authored opinions, compared to 47 percent of opinions written in calendar year 1983.

Petitions for discretionary review were received by the Court from 125 counties. Harris and Dallas Counties accounted for 47 percent of the petitions filed, with 335 petitions being received from Harris County and 263 petitions originating from Dallas County.

During the year ending August 31, 1984, there were 35 death penalty cases reaching the Court under the automatic review provisions of article 37.071, Code of Criminal Procedure. In calendar year 1983, there were 54 death penalty cases reaching the Court on appeal.

COURTS OF APPEALS

There are 14 Courts of Appeals in Texas which, since September 1, 1981, have heard intermediate appeals in both civil and criminal cases.

Courts of Appeals are located in Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texarkana, Amarillo, El Paso, Beaumont, Waco, Eastland, Tyler, Corpus Christi, and Houston. Houston has two Courts of Appeals. Each court has jurisdiction over a supreme judicial district.

Five of the courts have three justices each. The Dallas Court, with 13 justices, is the largest. There are 80 justices statewide.

Criminal and Civil Backlogs Reduced

The 14 Courts of Appeals reduced both their civil and criminal pending caseloads during state fiscal year 1984 which ended August 31, 1984. The Courts disposed of 8,274 total cases during the year, an average of 103 dispositions (59 criminal and 44 civil) per justice.

It was the first time since calendar year 1973 that the Courts of Appeals ended a reporting year with fewer civil cases on their dockets than when the year began, and the second consecutive year that they reduced their criminal backlog.

The Courts of Appeals had 3,962 criminal cases and 2,643 civil cases pending as of September 1, 1983. On August 31, 1984, 3,500 criminal cases and 2,217 civil cases were pending. The total backlog of 5,717 pending cases was 13.4% less than the 6,605 case backlog at the beginning of the fiscal year. The state average for pending cases was 71.5 per justice.

A total of 6,951 cases were filed in the Courts of Appeals during the fiscal year, which included 3,988 criminal cases and 2,963 civil cases. This was a decrease of 4 percent from the 7,238 total cases filed in fiscal year 1983. Criminal cases added decreased 5 percent from the 4,202 filed in fiscal year 1983 and civil cases decreased 2 percent from the 3,036 filed in fiscal year 1983.

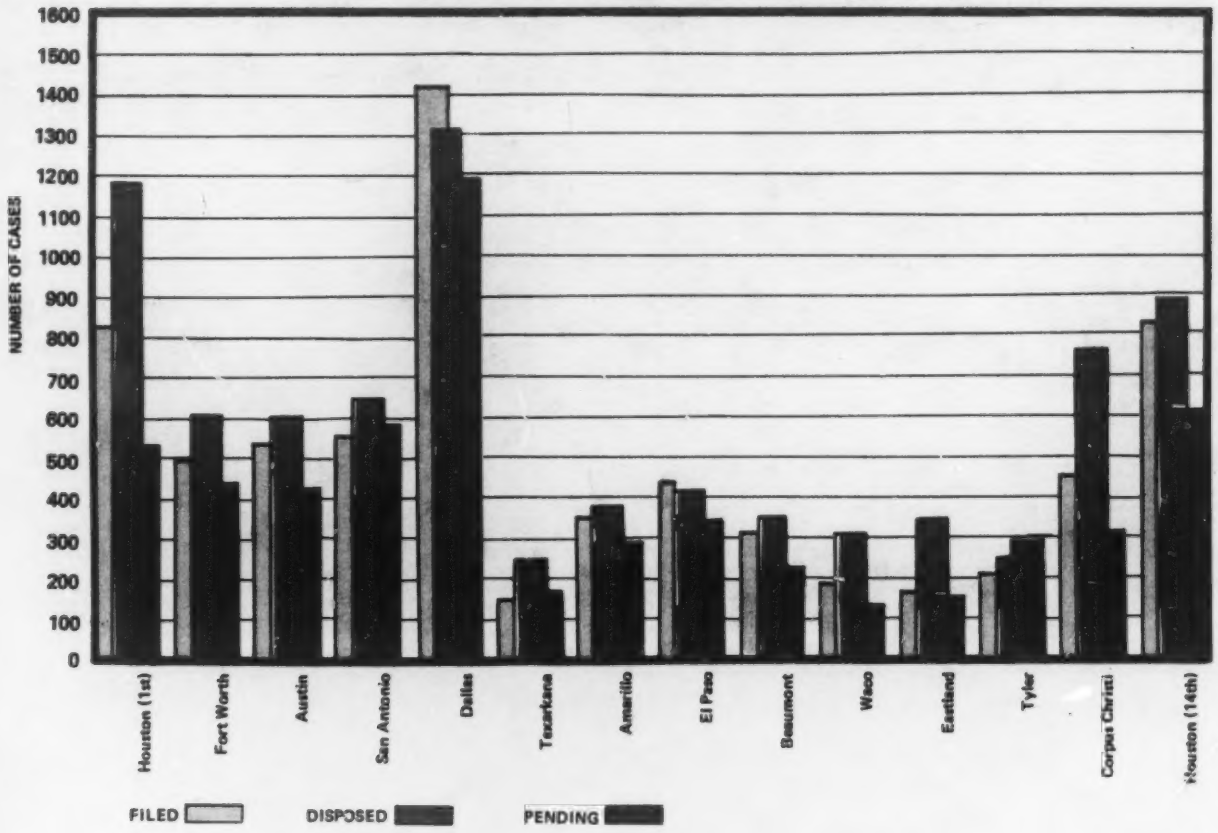
COURTS OF APPEALS

Cases filed, disposed and pending by court, year ending August 31, 1984



Filings Averaged 86.9 Per Justice

Considering civil and criminal cases together, the Fifth Court in Dallas had the highest average number of new cases filed per justice (109.5) during fiscal year 1984. The other courts ranged down to 51.3 cases per justice filed in the Sixth Court in Texarkana. State average filings were 86.9 per justice.

The First Court of Appeals in Houston disposed of the largest number of cases per justice (131.2) during fiscal year 1983. State average dispositions were 103.4 per justice.

The largest number of pending cases per justice (97.3) at the end of the fiscal year was in the Twelfth Court of Appeals in Tyler. The lowest number per justice (48) was in the Tenth Court in Waco. The State average for pending cases was 71.5 per justice.

Approximately 24 percent of all cases filed in a Court of Appeals in Texas in fiscal year 1984 were filed in one of the two Courts located in Houston. Approximately 20 percent of all cases filed in the State were filed in the Dallas Court.

In fiscal year 1984, the Courts of Appeals wrote 7,841 opinions, 3.0 percent more than the 7,613 written in calendar year 1983.

The Courts of Appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 14 percent of the cases disposed of during fiscal year 1984, compared to 12.5 percent in calendar year 1983.

While the 14 Courts of Appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographic areas, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts by order of the Supreme Court, pursuant to Article 1738, V.T.C.S. The Supreme Court transferred 151 civil cases and 419 criminal cases in fiscal year 1984, compared with 130 civil cases and 552 criminal cases transferred in fical year 1983.

Disposition of Criminal Cases

Of the 3,500 criminal cases pending in the Courts of Appeals at the end of fiscal year 1984, 54 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 30 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 16 percent more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6.4 months in the Fort Worth Court to 14.3 months in the Tyler Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 10.1 months.

A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard. DISTRICT COURTS

During the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, three new district courts were created as a result of legislation. On September 1, 1983, there were 361 district-level courts. That number increased to 364 by the end of the year with the addition of new courts created effective January 1, 1984. For statistical purposes, 363 has been used as an average number of district courts for the year.

The district courts experienced a 0.9 percent increase in new cases filed during the reporting year, up from 462,884 in calendar year 1983. (Until this report, court statistics were compiled on a calendar year rather than a state fiscal year basis.) The number of new criminal cases filed decreased 6.2 percent below calendar 1983, while civil cases increased 4.5 percent and juvenile cases decreased 3.6 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 76.6 percent of all new cases filed during the fiscal year. The largest segment of civil cases filed (38.2 percent of new civil filings) were divorce actions. Of the civil cases filed, damages and personal injury cases (including workers' compensation) comprised 11.4 percent, tax cases comprised 12.8 percent, and disputes over debts comprised 13.9 percent.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 2.2 percent of the total cases filed in the district courts.

Criminal cases constituted 21.3 percent of the total new cases filed during the year ending August 31, 1984. Of the criminal cases, 18.6 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 19.5 percent burglary, 5.3 percent robbery, 1.8 percent homicide (including capital murder), 4.4 percent rape (including sexual abuse of a child and, after September 1, 1983, sexual assault and aggravated sexual assault), 5.5 percent felony DWI and 13.4 percent drug offenses (including marijuana). About 7.4 percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. About 15 percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder were by indictment.

Urban Filings Increase

The number of all categories of cases filed in the ten Texas counties with populations over 210,000 increased 2.0 percent for state fiscal year 1984 over the number of filings during calendar year 1983. In all other counties, the number of cases filed decreased 0.6 percent. These ten large-population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces, Jefferson, and Lubbock) had approximately 54 percent of the State's population and 58 percent of the total cases filed during the fiscal year.

Total case filings increased in the counties of Nueces (14.4 percent), El Paso (14.3 percent), Bexar (7.7 percent), Dallas (6.8 percent), Travis (5.9 percent), and Tarrant (1.6 percent). Decreases in total filings occurred in the counties of Lubbock (14.6 percent), Harris (3.5 percent), Jefferson (3.3 percent), and Hidalgo (0.3 percent).

New filings in criminal cases decreased 4.8 percent in the ten urban counties during fiscal year 1984 as compared to calendar year 1983. This compares to a decrease of 12.3 percent in criminal filings for all other counties of the State. The largest decline in criminal filings was in Hidalgo County (20.1 percent), followed by Travis County (12.2 percent). The only urban counties reporting increases in criminal filings were El Paso (16.0 percent), Bexar (11.8 percent), and Nueces (9.2 percent).

Civil case filings rose 3.7 percent in the most populous counties, and 3.6 percent in the remaining counties of the State. Only three of the ten urban counties reported declines in civil filings: Lubbock (16.1 percent), Jefferson (2.7 percent) and Harris (2.4 percent). The largest increases in civil filings were in the counties of Nueces (15.4 percent), El Paso (14.5 percent), and Travis (12.4 percent).

Percent of Dispositions Increases Slightly

During the fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, the district courts of the State disposed of 41.7 percent of the total cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year)--compared to 43.3 in calendar year 1983. The district courts in the ten counties with populations over 210,000 disposed of 43.6 percent. In all other counties of the State, 39.4 percent were disposed of. Statewide, 50.1 percent of the criminal cases and 39.2 percent of the civil cases on the dockets were disposed of during the year.

In the ten urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 51.2 percent, ranging from 61.2 percent in Hidalgo County to 30.9 percent in El Paso County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 210,000 averaged 48.8 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 41.2 percent in the ten urban counties and 36.8 percent in the rest of the State. The range in the ten urban counties was from 61.4 percent in Dallas County to 31.9 percent in Bexar County.

An average of 1,220 cases per judge were disposed of during the fiscal year, a decrease of 2.9 percent from the disposition rate of 1,256 cases per judge in calendar year 1983.

Of all civil cases, 40.0 percent were disposed of by non-jury trials. (More than 69 percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Of the civil cases disposed, 17.6 percent were dismissed for want of prosecution, and 15.4 percent were dismissed at the request of the plaintiff.

The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 57.7 percent of the criminal cases disposed. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 61.1 percent of the cases and acquitted in slightly over one percent. Nearly 36.5 percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 14.0 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 24.9 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case.

In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 86.3 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 13.7 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 67.2 percent of the cases and acquittals in 32.8 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 14.2 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) with 82.6 percent by convictions. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of misdemeanors (47.3 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for felony DWI (16.1 percent).

Death Sentences Imposed

Thirty death sentences (compared to 33 in calendar year 1983) and 306 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during the year ending August 31, 1984. A total of 24,882 commitments to the Texas Department of Corrections were reported (including persons incarcerated after revocations of probations). Another 5,746 persons were incarcerated in local jails, 27,681 were placed on probation (excluding the 9,622 persons placed on deferred adjudication), and $14,220,200 in fines were assessed. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas, 31.2 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the time of indictment or information, 13.2 percent took two to three months, 10.8 percent took three to four months, and 39.8 percent took over four months. The remaining 5.0 percent of the dispositions were after completion of deferred adjudication.

Of the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS) was entered in 64.5 percent of the cases disposed. The juvenile was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in 1.5 percent.

District courts handled 0.5 percent less divorce actions during fiscal year 1984 than during calendar year 1983. During the fiscal year, 137,247 divorce cases were disposed of--31.0 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Some 21.5 percent of divorce cases were dismissed.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories of cases. Only 17.8 percent of the tax cases filed during the year or carried over from the previous year were disposed of by the district courts.

Almost 33 percent of the personal injury-type cases ended in agreed judgments, and 21.5 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

Of the 333,751 civil dispositions during the year ending August 31, 1984, the courts disposed of 27.5 percent in under three months, 20.4 percent in three to six months, 17.7 percent in six to 12 months, 11.3 percent in 12 to 18 months, and 23.0 percent took over 18 months.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1984--620,186--was 6.2 percent higher than the 583,761 pending on September 1, 1983. Criminal cases pending increased by 4.4 percent while civil cases pending were up 6.7 percent.

At the current disposition rate, it would take an average of 511.1 days for the district courts to dispose of the cases which were pending on August, 31, 1984.

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories, with abbreviation used in parentheses, are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER (CAP. MURD). Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER (MURD OR VOL. MANS). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (AUTO PERS. INJURY). All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (OTHER PERS. INJURY). Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION (WORKERS COMP). Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES (ACCT CONT NOTE). Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS (RECIP). Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state. Includes Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (U.R.E.S.A.) cases.

8. CONDEMNATION (CONDM). Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

   - -Occupational Drivers License
   - -Termination of Parental Rights
   - -Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
   - -Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil or juvenile cases.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1984

The county clerk in each of the 254 counties of Texas is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For for the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, the clerks in all 254 counties reported activity all twelve months, for a 100 percent reporting rate.

Looking at numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 75.0 percent (444,194) of the 592,182 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 12.7 percent (75,064), and probate represented 11.9 percent (70,666). New juvenile cases filed were less than 0.4 percent of the total.

DWI Cases Top Criminal Dockets

Concerning the criminal cases only, 31.5 percent of those filed in or appealed to the county-level courts were for driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs (DWI/DUID), 15.5 percent were for theft, 7.1 percent for violations of drug laws, 17.4 percent for traffic offenses, 1.9 percent for simple assault, and 26.5 percent were for other criminal offenses.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 21.5 percent of the cases added to the county-level court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county-level courts or added in another manner.

Debt Suits Dominate Civil Dockets

Of the civil cases filed in or appealed to the county-level courts during the year ending August 31, 1984, 35.8 percent were classified as suits on debt, 9.1 percent concerned personal injury/damage suits, 3.4 percent were divorce suits, 3.3 percent were tax suits, and 48.5 percent were other civil cases.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the State disposed of 51.6 percent of the 1,048,294 total criminal, civil, and juvenile cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year). No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. The disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (64 percent). Fifty-four percent of the criminal cases on the docket were disposed of as were 41 percent of the civil cases. Within the category of criminal cases on the docket, 58.2 percent of the drug charges, 56.7 percent of the DWI/DUID charges, 40.0 percent of theft charges, 49.3 percent of assault charges, 61.7 percent of traffic cases, and 59.3 percent of other criminal cases were disposed.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county-level courts disposed of 540,944 cases, while 533,115 cases were added to their dockets.

Of the criminal cases disposed of in county-level courts, 45 percent of the dispositions followed a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, and 46.1 percent were dismissed. Trials were held in less than 1.3 percent of the criminal cases disposed of; 3,510 were before the judge alone, and 2,237 were before a jury.

The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the traffic cases--74.9 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Dismissals accounted for 29.3 percent of the DWI/DUID, 57.0 percent of the theft, 39.2 percent of drug, and 55.7 percent of the assault case dispositions, respectively.

With regard to civil cases, 11.8 percent of dispositions involved a trial. Of the civil cases tried, 732 were before a jury and 9,149 were before the judge alone. Default or agreed judgments accounted for 39.5 percent of civil dispositions, and 42.0 percent of civil cases were dismissed.

Total Pending Caseloads Decline

Total cases pending on the dockets of the county-level courts decreased 1.5 percent from 515,179 on September 1, 1983, to 507,350 on August 31, 1984. (This does not include probate cases.)

Civil cases remaining on the dockets on August 31, 1984, represented a 3.9 percent decrease in pending civil cases and pending criminal cases decreased by 0.8 percent during the fiscal year.

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one county (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D. An offense under Article 6701L-1, V.T.C.S. (Driving While Intoxicated) or Article 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S. (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS. An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders then outstanding. (Section 31.06, P.C. is also often cited in the complaint.) If the complaint is originally brought in the county court (Class A or B Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 2. If the case is an appeal from a Justice of the Peace or Municipal Court (Class C Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 3. Also including in Line 3 is an appeal of a case brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Check.

3. DRUG OFFENSES. An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug act (Article 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT. An offense under Penal Code 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC. Violations of the provisions of Article 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Article 6701L-1) and D.U.I.D. (Article 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL. An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not to be included in this category.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS OF DEBT. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE. (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE DOCKET

The number of probate cases, of all types, including mental health proceedings.

JUVENILE COURT ACTIVITY

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1984

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district court, criminal district court, county court at law, or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

The total statewide activity indicates that during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984, about 82 percent of the juvenile cases in the State were handled by district courts and 18 percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Juvenile Filings Increase 3.3%

Statewide, 12,373 new juvenile cases were filed during fiscal year 1984--3.3 percent more than in calendar year 1983. Of these, 10,889 were for allegations of delinquent conduct and 1,484 were for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision. The courts disposed of 13,497 cases--2.0 percent more than in 1983.

Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) were entered in 65.8 percent of the dispositions. Findings of no delinquent conduct or no conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 1.3 percent. Less than 33 percent of dispositions were dismissed or otherwise disposed of (including change of venue transfers).

Of those children found to be delinquent or in need of supervision, 81.9 percent were placed on formal probation. Where probations were granted, 5,614 (or 77.1 percent) of the children were placed in the care of their parents; 1,029 (or 14.1 percent) were placed in residential care facilities; and 634 (or 8.7 percent) were placed with foster parents.

Children found to be delinquent were ordered confined to a Texas Youth Commission facility in 17.5 percent of the cases.

During fiscal year 1984, 161 children were certified to be tried as adults, down from 254 children in calendar year 1983.

Other actions taken by juvenile courts during the fiscal year included the holding of 12,665 detention hearings and 941 hearings on motions to modify court orders and the granting of 795 motions to revoke probation.

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1984

The Judicial Council determined from various sources that there were 964 justices of the peace in Texas during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1984. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. Statewide, the Council received 8,588 reports out of a possible 11,568 for the year (a 74 percent reporting rate).

Two-Thirds of Filings are Traffic Cases

Criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 89 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 76 percent were traffic cases (more than 2/3 of all cases filed). During the fiscal year, 1,459,104 traffic cases were reported filed. Non-traffic criminal cases comprised 24 percent of the criminal cases filed. Civil cases provided 11 percent of the new cases filed. Sixteen percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, 42 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits, and 42 percent were other civil actions.

In addition to cases filed, the reporting courts held 10,064 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In their capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting justices of the peace accepted 51,818 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 48,714 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). There were 2,575 examining trials held (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) and 12,921 inquests conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 48,048. Also, 3,622 search warrants were issued, and 102,211 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Emergency mental commitment hearings were conducted on 3,464 occasions, and 10,410 matters relating to juveniles were undertaken.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving or deferred disposition), and at trial. Eighty percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 16 percent at trial, and 4 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course or a period of deferred disposition.

Looking at traffic cases only, 85 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 87 percent of those by payment of fine. Of the 9 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining cases were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 94 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 71 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 82 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Sixteen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 93 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 60 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (62 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than did criminal cases (11 percent). Thirty-eight percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported the disposition of 1,774,802 cases, which is 82 percent of the 2,154,701 filed. Appeals were filed in 18,192 cases tried in the justice of the peace courts, or about one percent of the cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Near $65.5 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1984, was $65,470,810. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to special funds of the State.

Finally, justices of the peace reported holding 164,283 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 82,052 causes not being filed as formal cases.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.)

3. Small Claims Suits. This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with Article 2460a, V.T.C.S.

4. Forcible Entry and Detainer. This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of Sections 24.001 - 24.008, Texas Property Code, and Rules 738-755, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Other Civil Suits. This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt) and for foreclosure of liens upon or for possession of personal property.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

Each of the 833 municipal courts operating in Texas cities during the year ending August 31, 1984, was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Texas Judicial Council on activity in the court. Statewide, the Council received 7,359 reports out of a possible 9,984 for the year (74 percent).

Traffic Cases Dominate Dockets

Traffic cases comprised 91 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. A total of 6,199,807 traffic cases were filed in these courts during the year. Non-traffic criminal cases accounted for the other 9 percent of the cases filed.

Of new traffic cases filed, 61 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 39 percent for parking-related offenses. Seventy-six percent of non-traffic cases filed were for state law violations with 24 percent related to local ordinances.

In the municipal judges' capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 53,401 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 16,414 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). A total of 582 examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 166 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 13,047. There were 5,406 search warrants issued and 64,672 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. In addition, 555 emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 6,099 matters relating to juveniles were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Eighty-five percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 12 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 3 percent were defensive driving dismissals or dismissals following completion of deferred disposition.

Looking at traffic cases only, 86 percent were disposed of prior to trial (81 percent of the non-parking and 99 percent of the parking). Of the 14 percent that went to trial, more than 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the rest before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 87 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 69 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 68 percent were disposed of prior to trial (65 percent of the state law violations and 80 percent of those relating to city ordinances), and 30 percent were disposed of at trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 91 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 55 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 5,386,783 cases, which is 79 percent of the 6,789,267 filed. Of the convictions, 77,984 cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than 1.4 percent of the total cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $139 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1984, was $139,282,277. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State. During the year, $19,176,088 was reported as being submitted by the cities to the State.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle.

Non-Parking includes all those violations which do not involve offenses for improper parking (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

Parking includes those offenses, by state law or city ordinance, which involve the improper standing of a vehicle (for example, Parking on Highway Right of Way, within an Intersection, Overparking, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations.

State Law violations are those usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.).

City Ordinance violations are those non-traffic offenses found in the ordinances of the city (for example, Dog Running at Large, Plumbing Code violation, etc.).

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories, with abbreviation used in parentheses, are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER (CAP. MURD). Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER (MURD OR VOL. MANS). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER (ASLT OR ATT. MURD). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault); any offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault), 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer), or 22.04 (Injury to a Child); or any offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.03) or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. RAPE. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape) or 21.03 (Aggravated Rape). After Sept. 1, 1983, any offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is an adult (17 years or older).

5. SEXUAL ABUSE OR RAPE OF A CHILD. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), 21.10 (Sexual Abuse of a Child) or 21.11 (Indecency with a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, any offense under Sections 21.04 (Sexual Abuse) or 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse). After Sept. 1, 1983, any offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is a child (younger than 17 years), and any offense under 21.11 (Indecency with a Child).

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (AUTO PERS. INJURY). All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (OTHER PERS. INJURY). Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION (WORKERS COMP). Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES (ACCT CONT NOTE). Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS (RECIP). Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state. Includes Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (U.R.E.S.A.) cases.

8. CONDEMNATION (CONDM). Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

9. NON-ADVERSARY (NON ADVER.). This is a narrowly defined category, to include only:
   - -Adoptions
   - -Changes of Name
   - -Occupational Drivers License
   - -Termination of Parental Rights
   - -Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
   - -Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil or juvenile cases.
